OTHOUSAND laborers can find imminediate em ploy on the ILLINOIS AND MICHIGAN CANAL. The large quantity of work to be done will be an nducement for men to emigrate; part of the work is already under contract and the balance to be let on the 18th... The Trustees expect to complete the work in two years, and have all the money necessary on deposite, $1,600,000; this of course is a much greater inducement for the laborer to emigrate: the wages will be liberal. This great work commences at Chitherefore either point of this Canal may be reached by the Lake or River. MANY-CONTRACTORS.
