PITTSBURGH, PA.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 19, 1845.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR AUGUST.

J. Carothers, T. J. Bigham, Joshua Hanna.

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.—We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, most always be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved.

NEW ORLEANS CIRCUS.—There was a perfect rush for admittance to witness the performances of this Equestrian Company, on Saturday evening. The performances were truly excellent, and the high character of Mr STICKNEY, as a manager and performer, was fully sustained.

MOB AT THE CIRCUS.—A short time after the commencement of the performance at the New Orleans Circus last evening, a mob assailed it, throwing brickbats and musculs of all kinds. Not content with this, some of the party succeeded in quietly removing the straddling which supported the seats, when loaded with men women and children, they fell with a terrible crash; a number of persons were badly injured.—Such conduct is disgraceful to our city, and we hope the proper authorities will take steps, not only to prevent the repetion of the outrage, but to bring the actors in last nights mob to justice.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

From the New Orleans Tropic, August 9.

DEPARTURE OF THE MEXICAN CONSUL.

The Mexican Consul will leave this city to-day, on the Relampago, for Vera Cruz. Throughout the courtesy of our friends of the "Bee," which paper will contain this morning his address to the Mexicans in this country, we are enabled to state that, although Senor Arrangoiz has closed his business here, and leaves in obedience to instructions from his government, the period of his departure was left wholly to his own discretion. The instructions to him were predicted, not upon a declaration of war, but upon the present unsettled relations between the two countries. We understand that he leaves at this time, in order to avoid the gales that usually occur in September. He takes his official papers with him.

From the New Orleans Bee.

We translate for the benefit of our readers, the following notice, (published in Spanish,) by the Mexican consul, and addressed to his countrymen:

MEXICAN CONSULATE,
NEW ORLEANS, August 8th, 1845.

By order of his excellency the President of the republic, I inform the Mexican citizens residing in the United States, that his excellency has determined that this consulate be closed, and that I return to Mexico, taking with me its archiever, in consequence of the state of our relations with the United States. In compliance with this order, I will this day close my office, and will sail to-morrow for Vera Cruz, on board the Mexican schooner Relampago.

F DE ARRANGOIZ, Consul.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the "Union," dated

GALVESTON, July 31st, 1845.

The steamer "Alabama" (which arrived here on yesterday evening from Aransas bay) will leave this morning for New Orleans. She took down General Taylor, and eight companies of the 4th regiment of United States troops, and landed them on St Joseph's island, in Matagorda bay, where they will remain until the rest of the troops arrive. In the mean time, Gen Taylor and his staff have taken the steamer Undine down to Corpus Christi, for the purpes of looking at the place, and seeing if it would be the best location for the troops until they are stationed where they are to remain. The troops were in fine health and spirits. There probability is a scarcity of good water on St Joseph's island; but in every other respect it will please them. There is great abundance of fish, and plenty of deer and other game. Major Donelson will probably visit Gen Taylor in a few days.—The Major has entirely recovered from his late indisposition, and appears to be in better health than I ever saw him. The convention is making progress with their business, and will close their labors, it is supposed, about the middle of August, or by the 20th at the latest. The officers will all be elected by the people, and for short periods, except the judges, who will probably be nominated by the governor, and elected by the Senate. There seems to be a disposition to avoid everything that could, by possibility, come in conflict with the constitution of the United States.

Naval.—We learn from an attentive correspondent at Pensacola, that on Wednesday last, the 6th inst., the United States frigate Potomac was off that harbor, beating in. It had been previously rumored that she was in a leaky condition; and it is conjectured that this was the probable cause of her early return to port. The United States brig Somers was, at the same date, ready for sea; with despatches on board for Vera Cruz. She was only awaiting the arrival of the commodore, and would sail imediately.

The sloop Clara, of Pensacola, was compelled to return to port the same day, from having sprung a leak; and, with much difficulty, was brought to the wharf.

A United States schooner, supposed to be the Flirt, bound from Norfolk for Chagres, was spoken on the 14th ult, in latitude 27 deg 14', longitude 56 deg 23'.
