THE SABBATH. Hark! the simple solemn chime. 'Tis the holy Sabbath time!

As the Christian's times of rest. Hark! the gentle invitation To repose and adoration!

Something in the Sabbath toll Soothes the mind and wins the soul: Telling me of Heaven's care, And stirring beacons to prayer.

Hark! the sound goes up to Heaven, Whence came down the precious lesson, Even as happy earth should see, Some responsive to the sky.

Softer seems the wind to blow, Calmer the sun to grow, Brighter the smiles of the sky, As the soul's prayer arise.

Hark! the solemn praise Of the Great First-giving Cause! Who from mighty labor stand, When the beautiful world was made.

When the land in verdant pride, Rose the water to divide, Hark! the light of the Word, And the first life in Eden stirred, Then He spoke as there stood, 'Tis done, and it is good.'

Holy Sabbath! let us pray For the coming of the day, From the hills of Canaan's care, Sorrowful thought and dark despair.

Heart's sighing that the soul Till it fills in their control; From the light of the world will, Holy Sabbath, save us still: Hark! the temple's solemn chime! 'Tis the holy Sabbath time!
