CORRESPONDENTS. In reference to communications which may appea in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make. We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, must always be taken as expressive of the views of the storier, Beaver, Warren and Cleveland Packets and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved.

New Shor Storg.-Among all the new establish ments that have opened out in the burnt district, we know of none more deserving of public favor and patronage, than the new Shoe store of our friend Kim-BALL, on Wood street, between 3d and 4th. His clock A. M., (on the arrival of the steamer Michigan Stock has been selected with much care, and being from Pittsburgh.) and arrive at Warren next morning practically acquainted with the business, he was enabled to make the best selections for the market. Give him a call, and examine his goods, and take a look at | Fare through $4 50. his pleasant "down east" countenance, and we have no doubt but you will come away well pleased.

NEW ORCEANS CIRCUS-FIREMENS BENEFIT .-Mr. STICKER, has kindly volunteered to appropriate the proceeds of Thursday night next, Sent. 4th, to the use of our excellent and efficient Firemen. Mr. Stickney is a manly and generous fellow; when at Cincinnati, a short time since, he set apart a night for the benefit of the firemen of that city—the attendance was very general and the Firemen realized quite a sum, which we have no doubt, was much needed a sum, which we have no doubt, was much needed her regular faily trips, leaving Pittsburgh (as hereto-and judiciously expended. MOVEMENTS OF MEXICAN TROOPS. The schooner Augusta, Capt Gillefte, arrived at N. rleans on the 18th instant, from the mouth of the lio Grande, whence she sailed on the 12th instant .-On the 22d of July, the Government submitted to Coness a declaration of war against the U States-the aid declaration to be made when there is news of the arrival of American troops in Texas. But the Govrument recommends to Congress to act on a bill au at 7 o'clock—connecting at Warren with Neil, Moore the war bill. It appears that the loan is almost com- ca street upwards of 300 feet, on which is erected a & Co's line of Stages, which leave Warren on the ar- pletely negotiated—at least so the official paper gives is to understand.

The Picayone of the 19th, says: "The general in ommand at Matamoras received information through Senor Arrangoiz, of the intended movement of the roops of the United States upon the "disputed teritory." We do not know whether this general be the ame Senor Garcia, who, some weeks since being or lered to build a fort to protect the city, "selected a soft spot where the digging was easy, and set his men to work." We presume it is the same man, as we learn that every point on the Rio Grande assailed by our troops has been declared by him to be nearly, not quite perfectly, protected.
