CREATING AN EXCITEMENT!—A man named Harper, who married a young girl some years since and abandoned her in a few months, says the New York News, attempted to visit her house in disguise on Sunday. He procured a female's wig, with long curls, and shaving his face clean, put it on and went out. He soon attracted the attention of a large crowd of men and boys, who mistook him for a woman dressed in men's clothes, and followed him about from street to street, until a policeman happened to see him, who at once took him to the police office. A pistol, with a spring bayonet, was found in his pocket. Justice Osborne committed him, in default of bail, for disturbing the peace, and yesterday enter a complaint against him for abandonment.

Married,

On Tuesday morning, the 9th inst., by the Rev J Cowell, Maj Y GRAHAM, of Mercer, to Miss MARY, daughter of Wm Kerns, Esq, of Allegheny city.

Accompanying the above notice, we received a delicious Pound Cake. We wish the happy couple length of days—uninterrupted prosperity, and all the joy and comfort the world can afford them.

VENITIAN BLINDS.
A. WESTERVELT,

THE old and well known Venitian Blind Maker, formerly of Second and Fourth sts.' takes this method to inform his many friends of the fact that his Factory is now in full operation on St. Clair st., near the old Allegheny Bridge, where a constant supply of Blinds of various colors and qualities, is constantly kept in hand and at all prices, from twenty-cents up to suit customers.

N. B If required, Blinds will be put up so, that in case of alarm by fire, or otherwise, they may be removed without the aid of a screw-driver, and with the same facility that any other piece of furniture can be removed, and without an extra expense.

Rheumatism.

ABOUT ten months since, I was attacked with Rheumatism in the small of my back and in the knees. Having heard B. A. Fahnestock & Co's Rubefacient highly spoken of as a remedy for Rheumatism I procured some, and the first application gave me such relief that I was able to go to work the next morning. I have had seven different attacks of Rheumatism previous to this, and have suffered much from it, and have used a great variety of remedies, but never met with no before that gave such prompt relief. JOHN WILSON,
Fifth Ward, Pittsburgh.

Prepared and sold by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co., corner of Wood and Sixth strnt. sept2
