In addition prove satisfactory, present the strongest inducements o other Stoves which he will have on hand, he has orained the right to manufacture and sell Hathaway's Patent Hot Air Cooking Stoves. This stove is pro-teunced superior to any other now in use in the United buttes; it is more durable in its construction, and betteradepted to the use of buking, rousting and cooking, as it is heated very regularly by confising the air in the store; and it is a great saving of fuel as well as the stove; and it is a given saving of fuel as well as labor. I will keep on hand a sufficient number to supply all demands if possible: I have five different sizes, izes. I have now in use upwards of fifty in and about this city; all put in use within six months. Being a-ware that the People of Western Pennsylvania have cen imposed upon by the introduction of new and high-recommended Stoves which were badly constructed, d havir g soonfailed and become useless, I will grant to persons wishing to procure the Hot Air Stove, the privilege of using it a sufficient length of time to prove its superior quality before I ask them to prochase. Manufacturers and Dealers in Ready-Mado Clothing, have stoves put up at any time, as I have wagons to carry them our; I therefore invite Farmers and all perersons notifying me from a distance by letter, can carry them out I therefore invite r armers and all per-sons to come and judge for them selves; also to try them and prove that it is to your advantage to have one. RECOMMENDATIONS. Miller's Mansion House, Sept, 19, 1344. Mr. R. DORAVAN-Sir: I have in use one of Hath uy's Hot Air Cooking Stoves, which I got from you last Spring. It affords me much pleasure to recom-mend it for its excellence. So far so my knowledge extends, I have no hesitation in saving it is the best stove now in use. I need not particularize its merits, but would advise all disposed to possess an article of the kind, to adopt the best method of satisfying them selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be satisfied.

Washington Temperance House Pittsburgh, Sept. 19, 1844. Mc. R.
