The Daily Morning Post. PITTSBURGH, PA. TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 7, 1845. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE. COMMITTEE FOR OCTOBER. George Ogden, W. Barker W. J. Howard. CORRESPONDENTS. In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.

We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, must always be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved. THE FACTORY OPERATIVES .- An attempt was made yesterday to put the Cotton Mills of Allegheny city into operation again, which failed, after the majority went to the mills and stopped them, pulling them away from the looms and spindles, we hear. In the several melees some of the employers young actress appears this evening, for the first time in Pittsburgh, in the beautiful play of the Ludy of Lyons. The admiters of talent can have an opport tunity this evening, of seeing one of the first actresses in America. All who wish to see justice done to the character of Pauline, had better attend. She is 'capable of showing all the strength and beauty the play possesses. morning in the old Basin. Fire started at 9 o'clock carried free. without fail.
