

PITTSBURGH, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1846.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR OCTOBER.

George Ogden, W. B. Wilson, W. J. Howard.

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have no objection to making them public, provided the name of the author be given, and the matter is of a nature to be of public interest.

The reading matter is, as usual, of a high character, comprising contributions from the Editor, from Hon. Caleb Cushing, Mr. Eliot, H. T. Tucker, Mr. J. O. Whitner, Mrs. Butler, Edward Matthews, D. W. C. Roberts, &c. The price of this volume, which has been reduced to $3 per annum, and at the present low price of postage almost any man can afford to subscribe for it.

The person who picked up a Parkbook, on Saturday morning, at about 6 o'clock, on Fifth street, near the corner of the Market street, and who has the book in his possession, is requested to bring it to the office of the Editor, where it will be returned to the owner, and he is respectfully advised to make the application, as he is known, and can be identified.

The Factory employers and operatives. They meet again today, at 3 P. M.

Min. Cullum takes a benefit this evening, and plays Discus in Faneuil.

Hires water in the Ohio—At dark last evening the Ohio was about 9 feet in the channel. It rained all day at intervals. Large amounts of water, from the mountains, are passing down the Ohio. We may expect wet weather, for some weeks to come, as both rivers above are still rising.

We were much disappointed when we called at Mr. Davis' Auction Rooms, to find the best standard edition of the best Literary Books, some of them splendidly bound, and at about one half of the regular price. We understand that the sale will be closed in a few days. We should think this a favorable opportunity for those who wish to purchase good books. The assortment is the best ever offered at Auction in this place.
