The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 15, 1845.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR OCTOBER.

George Ogden, W. Barker W. J. Howard.

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.—We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, must always be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved.

THE ELECTION.

The election passed off very quietly. In the city of Pittsburgh, the democratic ticket has a small majority. In Allegheny, the majority for the whig ticket is nearly three hundred. We have received partial returns from a number of townships, and we had a regular table partly in type, but the returns were found to be so very imperfect that we concluded it would be better to postpone the table until to-morrow. We think the Whig ticket is elected by a very meager majority.

PHŒNIX SAFE.—The attention of the public is respectfully directed to the advertisement of Messrs. CONSTABLE & STRICKLER, manufacturers of the Phœnix Safe. The certificate will show that the article has been thoroughly tested by a committee of our citizens. There is no mistake—the Phœnix Safe is the Safe, and papers and books placed in it will be perfectly safe, though surrounded by intense heat for many hours.

SPEAKING OF ELECTIONS—Mr James Adams last evening, (having, no doubt, a considerate stomach) caused to be conveyed to the inferno which our "devils," et cetra inhabit, a large basket of substantials, not in the least unpalatable, upon our honor.—Seeing that Mr A. was a great loser by the conflagration of the 10th of April, we could scarcely have expected to be so much a gainer—even at the expense of his kitchen. As it is—see his advertisement, and patronize him.

NOTICE.

A meeting will be held this evening, at the Washington Coffee House, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of forming a society in the 4th ward, in support of the Cotton Factory operatives. All those who are friendly to the ten hour system of labor, are respectfully invited to attend.

These goods are new even in the Eastern cities; having just been imported for the Tailors. We pledged ourselves to get up a superior coat this fall—"better than ever." We are prepared to fulfil all promises made through this medium or otherwise: and as we lay claims to be THE FASHIONABLE HEAD QUARTERS of this city, we will pledge ourselves furthermore, to compete with any Eastern house that sends work to Pittsburgh, made to order. In proof of our ability to do so, we mention with pride, that the names of many gentleman who formerly received their garments from the East, are now to be found on our register of customers, who are now convinced that they can be suited as well, and at more reasonable rates. Democratic Review.

GREATLY REDUCED PRICE—FROM $5 TO $3 PER ANNUM—SINGLE COPY, 25 CENTS.

Prospectus of the next (or 17th) Volume.

THE PRICE of the DEMOCRATIC REVIEW has heretofore been too high—not for its size, cost, and character, but for the means of tens of thousands of readers who would be glad to receive it, and among whom is is highly desirable that it should circulate. For the purpose, therefore, of largely widening the range of its usefulness, and of multiplying the numbers of those to whom it may be accessible, it has been determined, simultaneously with the great reduction in the expenses of the postage, to reduce its subscription price also, from Five to only Three dollars; and when several unite in subscription, to as low as $2 50, or even $2 30 per annum.

This very large reduction in the receipts (accompanied with but a comparatively small diminution of its expenses) involves, of course, an entire sacrifice of profit upon it, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of its subscribers. There will be at the outset only a small reduction in its number of pages; soon to be restored to its old number, without increase of price, when the anticipated success of the experiment shall justify it.

The PORTRAITS OF DISTINGUISHED DEMOCRATS will be continued—engraved in better and more costly style than heretofore.

The POSTAGE will hereafter, for any distance, be only five and a half cents; it has heretofore been, for over 100 miles, eighteen cents.

We look for an extension of circulation to be reckoned by tens of thousands, as the result and compensation of this great reduction of price. Every friend of the work, and of the Democratic principles and cause, is confidently appealed to, to exert himself with an active interest to procure it subscribers; both to extend its usefulness, and to carry it successfully through the crisis of this great reduction of its receipts.

Those who have paid in advance for the coming year, will receive it, at the reduced rate, for a year and a half.

TERMS HENCEFORWARD.

(INVARIABLE IN ADVANCE.)

Single copy,	$3 00	Eight copies,	$20 00
Four copies,	11 00	Thirteen "	30 00

It will thus be seen that when thirteen copies are ordered at once, the price is brought down to about $2,30 each. For six months, half these rates.

These rates afford high inducements to agents and others to interest themselves to procure subscribers.

The cash system and payment in advance must be accommprosingly adhered to The past relaxation of it has caused an accumulation of not far from 40,000 of debts due to the work, therefore this must be wholly reformed; not must either eminent politicalfriend, or the most intimate personal one, be displeased on experiencing its application, in the stoppage of their numbers if they neglect this rule; the vital necessity of which, at the present reduced rates, must be obvious to all.

No communications will be taken from the Post Of fice unless free of postage.

All communications, both on editorial and publishing business, must be addressed henceforward to the undersigned. Those relating to the settlement of the past debts due the work will be still addressed to M. H G LANGLEY, 8 Astor House, the past arrangements with whom, as publisher, have reached their termination. J. L. O'SULLIVAN.

July, 1845. 132 Nassau street, New York.

LAST LIKENESS OF GENERAL JACKSON.

The admirable Daguerreotype of General Jackson, taken by Anthony, Edwards & Co a few weeks before his death, has been purchased for the use of the Democratic Review. It is in the hands of the artist, and will be engraved in the finest style of mezzotint of extra size. It is a most beautiful and interesting work declared by Mr Van Buren and others to give a more perfect idea of the good and great old man than any other likeness; and ought to be possessed and framed by every friend who loves or reveres his memory.—Those who subscribe early will receive it as one of the regular series of Portraits.

Boston Clothing Store,

58. MARKET STREET. 58.

NEAR THE POST OFFICE.

J. W. RHODES & CO.,

TAKE this method to inform the gentlemen of Pittsburgh and vicinity that they have taken the above store, and will be supplied from their own extensive manufactory in the city of Boston, with Clothing of the best and most fashionable quality.

It is perhaps well known to all classes, that purchasers of all kinds of goods in this section of the country have been compelled to pay both the profit of the manufacturer and retailer, as goods can be manufactured at the East at about half the price they can here. Hence it is that retailers in the Western country resort to the Eastern markets to make their selections, paying the manufacturer a profit of at least from 15 to 20 per cent. The retailers must add as much or more profit to this, so that the buyer at least must pay both the profit of the retailer and manufacturer. Thus by manufacturing our own garments, we can easily dispense with the profit of manufacturing and save the purchaser at least 20 per cent.

An arrangement has been made by which we shall receive fresh and newly made garments, from goods of the latest importations, every week during the busy season. By these purchasers can have the satisfaction of buying the most fashionable goods, cut and made in the most substantial manner.
