THE ACRORAT CARLLY-The Wonder of the World.—The performances of the Acrobat Family attract crowds to the Theatre. Their performances are truly astonishing. We do not believe that their equals are to be found in the world; to say that they are not greatly superior to the Bavel Family, is in our spinion, to do them great injustice. There is an elegenee about the performances of the Acrobat Family peculiarly pleasing to the audience; the most wonderful feats are performed with much grace, and with little or no apparent effort-indeed you cannot perceive the least evidence that it has cost the slightest
