BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

From our Washington Correspondent.

December 22, 1845.

MR EDITOR—The great work has been perfected to-day, of adding another to the confederacy of the United States. The "lone star" has now her place amid our brilliant constellation.

In the Senate, Mr Calhoun appeared, was qualified and took his seat.

After the presentation of a few petitions and remonstrances against the "admission of Texas as a Slave State," the resolutions which had previously passed the House, admitting her into the Union, were taken up. Mr Webster opened the debate, and as might be expected from his peculiar position, took ground against her admission with the unequal power she would have with her slave population, as compared to other states of the Union. Mr Huntington also spoke at some length on the same side. Messrs. Barrien and Bagley took the opposite side, and contended that the matter was already settled by the action of the American people. The latter took occasion to define his position in relation to the matter, and declared he had never entertained any other idea than one favorable to the measure.

The vote was then taken and the resolutions adopted, Ayes 31. Noes 13.

Immediately after the passage of these resolutions, Mr Levy, of Florida, introduced one, having in view the opening of negotiations with Spain for the annexation of the Island of Cuba to the United States.

Mr Ashley, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill providing for the extension of the laws of the United States over the State of Texas, suspending judicial districts, &c.

Mr Benton submitted a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the committee on Military Affairs, to inquire into the expediency of raising a regiment of volunteers, to protect emigrants on their way to Oregon.

The most important business of the House, was the election of a Chaplain, for which three ballotings were had. On the third, Mr Milburn, of Illinois, of the Methodist Church, received 105 votes, out of 183, and was consequently elected.

You will probably see in some of the papers the propagation of a rumor that negotiations had been renewed by the British Minister on the subject of the Oregon Territory. I have taken some pains to investigate the matter, and am satisfied there is no foundation for the rumor.

Yesterday, we received the news brought from England by the Acadia, including the libutes and gasconade incident, the journals of that country. It produces no sensation here, other than to occasion a smile of derision.

Mr Giffy, a principal clerk in the War Department, fell down and died instantly on Saturday evening, of a wasting for a carriage to take him out to exercise after a fit of sickness in the office.

It is, perhaps, not an uninteresting coincidence with the admission of a new state to our glorious confederation of republics, that a large party is now celebrating over a splendid banquet at the Old Colony Hotel, the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims on Plymouth Rock. May it reach that the anniversary of this day, shall see the progress of as extensive advancement of human rights, and humanity, as the event now being commemorated.

Very Respectfully, yours

DUQUESNE.

THE Packet ship Independence, from the U. S. navy-yard, Pittsburgh, arrived at Boston on Friday in Nine days, 12½ hours for the frigate Cumberland. The Boston Transcript says:—Just before coming to anchor in the navy-yard, she was discovered to be on fire in the ceiling under the berth deck, near the after hatchway. She was towed up to the docks, and was stopped on her docks by the crew, but the fire was in a rare gush of universal engines were brought along side from the Navy Yard and played into her. The damage was not great."—Baltimore Sun.

Accident to Bishop Potter.—The Philadelphia U. S Gazette, of yesterday, says: "We learn with deep regret, that a serious accident befell the Right Rev. Bishop Potter, on board the steamboat on his way to Burlington. We trust that surgical skill will restore the fractured limb to usefulness, and that no danger may remain from the occurrence, to the health of this eminent prelate."—Ib.

REPORT OF A NEW REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.

A private letter was received to-day from Havana of the 9th inst. from a respectable quarter, stating that the English steamer had just arrived from Vera Cruz, bringing the intelligence that despatches had been received at Vera Cruz on board one from the Secretary of the steamer, and that Paredes, at the head of 8,000 men, is marching on the city of Mexico from St Louis Potosi, 300 miles off, and that there will be no opposition to him on the way. The ground of his pronunciamento are the steps taken by the government to enter into a treaty with the United States for the annexation of Texas. It is supposed that a foreign nation was indirectly connected in the movement. It is said that the despatches were received on the same day that Mr Slidell left Vera Cruz.

THIS is to certify, that my youngest boy aged about 2 years, was taken sick with the summer complaint. He was prescribed for by seven all summer, and received little or no relief. About the mid dle of November, I gave him some of Fahnestock's Vermifuge, which brought a number of the largest sized worms, and gave him immediate relief. He has been perfectly healthy.

Sellers' Imperial Cough Syrup has been tried to hundreds who have used it, and they are prepared to say candidly that it has the power to impart benefit that cannot be obtained for the cough in any remedy in general use.
