The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 30, 1845.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR DECEMBER.

N. B. Craig, John Shea, William Thaw.

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.—We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, must always be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved.

THE RELIEF FUND.—There was a meeting of the city councils last night for the express purpose, as we understood, to decide whether the people were to be informed as to the disposition made of the Relief Fund. For some cause or other, the committee were not prepared to make a full report, and the whole matter was laid over, we learn, for another week.—The people, we presume, are to be kept in the dark until after the election. We think now that it would be well for the people to assemble in public meeting, and demand justice at the hands of their agents.

LADIES' TEMPERANCE FAIR.—The Ladies' Temperance Fair, we learn, will continue the entire week. They have a great variety of articles for sale. Those desirous of aiding the cause of Temperance, will find a table there well furnished with the principal Temperance periodicals, and other excellent works on the same subject.

These publications are sold very cheap, so as to enable those desiring to give them circulation, an opportunity to purchase.

☞ We neglected yesterday to direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs STERRETT & WEAVER. They are worthy young men just commencing business, and we hope will be liberally patronized. See advertisement.

NEW DRUG STORE.—Our young friend Dr. J. M TOWNSEND, has opened a drug store in Market street between Third and Fourth. He has a large and excellent assortment of fresh medicines, which he will sell cheap. Give the new beginner a call. Speak advertisement.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Dec 29th, 1845.

There were two young "customers" before his honor yesterday morning for disorderly conduct. They had taken a little too much of the ardent, and were disturbing the quietness of the neighbors around. They were kindly invited to spend the night in the tombs, from which they emerged in the morning, paid their fines and slopped.

☞ We would call the attention of our readers to the large sale of fine dry goods, this morning at 10 o'clock, at Davis' Auction room.

The sale of Dry Goods by McKenna, will be continued at Jacob & Druckers, this morning at 10 o'clock. Great excitement yesterday in consequence of Cheap Bargains.

DUQUESNE COLLEGE.

The classes in Duquesne College, will recommence on Monday the 5th of January 1846.

dec 30 3t&1w. ROBT BRUCE, Principal.

LECTURE.

T I Fox Alden, Esq will deliver a lecture before the Franklin Lyceum, by request, on Tuesday evening, Dec 30th, at their Hall, corner of Wood and 3d streets, entrance on 3d, commencing at 7 o'clock, on the following subject:

"The interests of labor and capital cannot, under any combination of circumstance, be antagonistical to each other."

The public are respectfully invited to attend—Seats free.

J. LONGSTAFF,
A. W. ING,
J. R. JOHNSTON,
Com. of Arrangements.

MILITARY AND CIVIC BALL.

To be held at the corner of St Clair and Liberty streets Brown & Reiter's Drug store. The Pittsburgh Independent Hibernia Greens," respectfully announce that they will give their annual Ball, on Tuesday, the 30th December, 1845. The favorable attendance which the citizens of Pittsburgh and its vicinity have bestowed upon the Balls heretofore given by the Greens, encourage them to believe that they will receive a notice equally as favorable, inasmuch as they have made arrangements which to them options will render it one of the most splendid that has ever been given by them in Pittsburgh.

COMMITTEE OF INITIATION AND RECEPTION.

Capt. J. O'BRIEN,
Lieut M. CONNOLLY,
FRANCIS MARREN,
JAMES KANE,
PATRICK KEENAN,

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

The Cincinnati Union of the 27th says: "The River at our landing, is still declining, having fallen within the last twenty-four hours, about 6 inches, leaving in the channel opposite the city, 6 feet water, and hence to Louisville—7 feet water.

At Louisville, last accounts, there was 6 feet 4 inches, in the Portland Canal, and falling.

At Nashville, latest dates, there was 3 feet water on Harpeth Shoals.

VERY LATE FROM TEXAS.

By the fast running Steamship Galveston, Capt Wright, arrived at New Orleans, Dec 17, Galveston city dates of the morning previous have been received. The G., says the Picayune, made the trip from city to city in thirty four hours only—altogether the quickest passage ever made. This thing of receiving Texas papers the next day after they are printed is a new thing entirely.

There is no news of moment in any of the papers before us. The report that Major Hays recently killed two Camanches in the Lipan Camp is contradicted by the agent of the latter tribe, who says that they were killed by the guard while attempting to escape. We see no account of further Indian depredation on the frontiers.

THE RIVER AT ST LOUIS.—An attempt was made, on the 15th inst to cross the river at St Louis, with a skiff loaded with merchandize to the value of $300. Most of the goods were thrown overboard to prevent the skiff from swamping, but the boat finally capsized, near the foot of Bissely Island, and the men in it escaped with difficulty.

On the 13th the weather was intensely cold and the ice on the river firm enough for teams to cross in safety.

TURNPIKE ELECTION.

THE Stockholders of the Monongahela and Cove Hill Turnpike Road company are hereby notified, that an election for President, and six managers, a secretary and treasurer, for the ensuing 2 years, is to be held for at the house of Wm Mitchell's north side of the Monongahela bridge, on Monday, January 12, 1846, between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock, P. THE U. S. CONSTITUTIONAL, Being a complete Compendium of the Statutes of each Congress of the United States from the Formation of the Government to the present time, with Questions and Answers, designed for Academies, Schools, and Private use in general.

By a communication from the Hon. Chief Justice Gibson.

Carlisle, 12th August 1845.

Dear Sir—I have not an opportunity to do it more acknowledging the receipt of your manuscript of the Constitutional Manual which I have read and have much commended. It is a book which ought to be read by all who have to do with the Constitution, and will be found necessary for its scholars to their higher duties. I am pleased to be known to be associated. With every wish for its success.

I am dear sir,

Printers' Look Here!

M'KINLEY CUT BROAD TYPES!

THESE are long and fare acquainted with the many who have used our Job Type, and to those who have not, we would say that our Job Type are cut and cast in the most workmanlike manner, and are now used in the United States in preference to any other.

Our Types are warranted cut and cast, and are strictly founded, and will not be found to become rounded by usage as all such types are evidently unfounded. The moulds we use are all square, hence cool Air, and cannot be compressed as to delay the action of water or the atmosphere.

Having just completed new and improved machinery, we are prepared to fill orders at the shortest notice, and being practical printers, and aware of having many years' experience as such to point to, we feel that we ourselves are to some extent, to give satisfaction in every case.

☞ Please to note that publish the above notice at Printer's Cost, and have the orders directed to us. And papers publishing this advertisement to the amount of $5, will receive them pay in type when called for to the amount of that value. Editors will please direct their papers containing the advertisement, that we may know where to send our pay.

Mails to Galveston.

PROPOSALS to carry the mails of the United States, from the 1st of March, 1846, to the 28th of February, 1850, with right to the department to extend to the 30th of June, 1850, from New Orleans, in Louisiana, to Galveston, in Texas, 450 miles and back, will be received at the Contract Office of the Post Office Department, until the 25th day of January, 1846, to be decided by the 31st day of said January.

Leave New Orleans every Saturday at 10 a. m., or rive at Galveston every Monday by 10 p. m.

Leave Galveston every Tuesday at 10 a. m., arrive at New Orleans every Thursday by 10 a. m.

The proposals should specify the mode of conveyance, whether by steam ship or sailing packet, and set forth the size, rate, and description of the vessel, with sufficient particularity to enable the decision to be made, on the advice of the proper officers of the naval service, whether the same is or is not convertible into a ship of war. And special notice is hereby given, that, agreeably to the provisions of an act of Congress, approved March 3d, 1845, those proposals (being acceptable in other respects) will be preferred which shall engage to carry the mail in a steam ship or ships, and shall stipulate to deliver said ship or ships to the United States, or to their proper officer, on demand made, for the purpose of being converted into a vessel or vessels of war; the United States having bound on their part to pay the fair full value thereof at the time of delivery, to be ascertained by four appraisers—appointed, two by the President of the United States, and two, by the owner or owners, with an umpire in case of disagreement, to be appointed by the President of the United States.

The bidder may propose a different schedule of days and hours than the one above specified. He may ask for an annual sum of compensation or in lieu thereof, a certain proportion of the postages accruing on the mail matter conveyed over the route, and he may offer to carry the mail more frequently than once a week.

Any form of contract are to be executed by the successful bidder and by his sureties, by or before the 1st day of March next. The contract is to provide among other things, that the pay of the ship is to be forfeited when the trip is not performed, and a due proportion when a grade of service is rendered inferior to that specified in the contract and that fines may be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained to the time, for failing to have room or to deliver into the post office at the port of landing, the mail belonging thereto, or any portion of it, to be wet, injured, lost, or destroyed; for conveying it in a place or manner that exposes it to depredation, loss or injury, for refusing, after demand made, to convey a mail by any additional steamship or vessel as by the contract or in the contract, and for not arriving at the time set, unless it is unavoiding intelligence, or furnishing the means of transmitting intelligence in advance of the mail.—The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures, for violating the post office laws; for disobeying the instructions of the department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the department, for assigning the contract without the consent of the Postmaster General; or for setting up or running an express or store mail.

The Postmaster General may alter the contract, and alter the schedule, he allowing a pro rata increase of compensation, within the restrictions imposed by law, for the additional service required, or for the increased speed, if the employment of additional clerk or carriers is rendered necessary; but the contractor may, in such case, relinquish the contract, on timely notice if he prefers it to the change. The Postmaster General may also discontinue or curtail the service, he allowing compensation on the same amount decreased in the contract money at any time to be terminated by joint resolution of the two houses of Congress.

In case of the service, the yearly pay, the bidder's name and his residence, as the name of each member of the firm where a company offers, should be distinctly stated in the proposals.

The following is the form of the guarantee, which should be filled the first blank with the name of the guarantor; the second with that of the bidder; and the third and fourth with the beginning and terminating points of the route; and, after being dated, should be signed by the guarantor, who must be known, by the written certificate of a postmaster, or other equally reliable testimonial, to be a man of property, and able to make good his guarantee. This guarantee, so certified, should accompany each bid:

"The undersigned ——, guarantees that ——, if his bid for carrying the mail from —— to —— be accepted by the Postmaster General, —— shall enter into a contract prior to the 1st day of March next, with good and sufficient sureties, to perform the service proposed.

"Dated ——."

The bid should be sent under seal to the First Assistant Postmaster General, and the words "Mail proposals—Galveston mail," written on the face of the letter, and should be dee posited in time to be received by or before the 25th day of January next, which will be the last day for receiving proposals under this advertisement.

C. JOHNSON,
Postmaster General.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
oct29 Washington, October 11, 1845 law12t.

P. S. If the bidder shall not consider himself able or prepared to commence service as early as the 1st of March next, he will specify in his proposals, the day on which he will put the service in operation.

REMITTANCES

TO ENGLAND, IRELAND, SCOTLAND AND WALES.

PERSONS wishing to remit small sums to ENGLAND, IRELAND, SCOTLAND and WALES, can have it sent by the undersigned, at very moderate rates. In consequence of the failure of the crops in those countries and the approach of Famine, no doubt to many a small sum sent in time, would be of incalculable benefit. The undersigned, aware of this, have determined to put the rates so low, that no one need be deterred from availing themselves of this opportunity. BLAKELY & MITCHEL,

DISEASE OF THE LIVER.

DEAR SIR—Agreeable to your desire, I write to keep you apprized of the prospects of the Clickener Sugar Coated Purgative Pill, in this city. You may recollect, when I first commenced selling your medicine, which was in May, 1844, we little dreamed of the success that it would crown the undertaking. Our premises had been as completely flooded by the one thousand and one unsaleable remedy for every possible complaint under the sun, that I seriously cont
