I believe no nominations were confirmed to day. That of Judge W. I think were confirmed to day. That of Judge W. I think were confirmed to day. That of Judge W. I think the best though there is some hostility to it. It is talked out-doors, here, that he owes his nomination to an impression created that he was an advocate for free trade. If so, deception has been used somewhere. I am told that there is a letter in existence, written by him while he was a candidate for the U.S. Senate, in which he pledged himself to the scopart of the Tariff of 1812.
