1845 Bingham's Transportation Line, BETWEEN PITTSBURGH AND THE EAST ERN CITIES.

PROPRIETORS. JACOB DOCK, WM. A. STRATION. WM. BINGHAM. THOS. BINGHAM, Conducted on Subbath-keeping principles. THE Proprietors of the old established Line by thoroughly recruited and renewed their stock and are well prepared to forward Produce and Merchandise on the opening of navigation. The long experience of the Proprietors in the curying business, with their watchful attention to the terests of customers, induces them to hope that t patronage heret-forc extended to "Bingham's Ling will be continued and increased. Deeming the usual self-glorifying style of adverti ing too absurd for imitation, and believing that wit former customers we need no self-commendation, w would merely invite such as have not heretofor outronised our Line, to give us a trial.

Our rates of freight shall at all times be as low

the lowest that are charged by other responsible Lines Produce and Merchandise will be received and for warded without any charge for advertising. Storas or Commission. Bills of lading promptly torwarded or Commission. Bills or occurs, and every direction carefully attended to.

For Coughs! Colds!! Consumptions!!! THORN'S PULMONARY CANDY. THIS pleasant and certain cure for coughs and colds goes ahead of all the preparations now or ever offered to the public. The use of it is so great that the proprietor has some difficulty in keeping a supply for the in creasing demand. Medical agencies, groceries, drug gists, coffee-houses, and even bars on steamboats keep a supply on hand. It is called for every where, and will sell in any place. The reason is this: every one who has a cough or cold by eating a few sticks find themselves curred, as it were homeonic.
