1845 Bingham's Transportation Line, BETWEEN PITTSBURGH AND THE EAST-ERN CITIES.

PROPRICTORS. JACOB DOCE, WM. A. STRATTON. WM. BINGHAM. Thos. Bingham, Conducted on Subbath-keeping principles. FIGURE Proprietors of the old established Line have thoroughly recruited and renewed their stock, and are well prepared to forward Produce and Merchandise on the opening of navigation. The long experience of the Proprietors in the carrying business, with their watchful attention to the interests of customers, induces them to hope that the putronage heretofore extended to "Bingham's Line" will be continued and increased.

Deeming the usual self-glorifying style of advertisbeening the usual selegioritying asset of metrics ing too absurd for imitation, and believing that with former customers we need no self-commendation, we former customers we need no self-commendation, we former customers we need no self-commendation, we would merely invite such as have not heretofore purronised our Line, to give us a trial.

Our rates of freight shall at all times be as low as the lowest that are charged by other responsible lines. Produce and Merchaulisa will be received and forwarded without any charge for advertising. Storage of Commission, Bills of leding promptly forwarded, divided into insignificance. The public are fast to not one out the Money will be received and to one out the Money will be received and to one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received and those sent to not one out the Money will be received.
