The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 28, 1846.

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.—We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us; and when inserted, must at ways be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved.

BURNT TO DEATH.—Mr John M'Graw, and his lady, of Fountain street, went out yesterday morning to look for a house, whilst absent the clothes of a little girl aged three years and three months, caught fire, and before assistance reached her, was so badly burnt that she died in about three hours. Dr A W Oliver, was immediately called in, and done every thing for her in his power, but it was all in vain.

THEATRE.—We cannot withhold another allusion to the superior style in which "A New Way to Pay Old Debts" was performed on Thursday evening. Mr Morris, as Sir Giles, exceeded the highest expectations of his friends, throughout the piece, and he played in the last act with startling effect. He is certainly a very promising young actor.

We clip from the Philadelphia Keystone of March 14th, the following notice of Mr PORTER's company, which is valuable as showing the estimation in which they are held where they have been long known:

"Pittsburgh Theatre—Chas S Porter, Esq. left this city, a few days ago, for Pittsburgh, where he intends to open the Theatre at that place, on or about 20th inst. He is the lessee and sole proprietor, and a more deserving man cannot be found in or out of the profession."

The company this season at Pittsburgh, will be a good one. He has engaged Mr Fredericks, Mr Morris, Mr C Smith, Mr Mulholland, and the celebrated comedian P Logan, Esq, Miss and Mrs Lewis, Miss Vance, and many others whose names do not now occur to us. He will also introduce as stars, Mr Booth, Mr Conner, Mr Crisp, Mrs Mowatt, Mr Chippendale, Mr Hackett, and Mr John Fest, the American tragedian, whose debut in this city, was so highly spoken of by the press.

Mr Porter will bring out Mr J Rees' drama of "Pat Lyon, the Philadelphia Locksmith," and "Benjamin Franklin, or the '76," written by that gentleman. This drama will create a sensation in the patriotic city of Pittsburgh. He has also a number of other original pieces, which will call forth the critical admiration of our brethren of the press of the "Iron City." "

Mr Hackett, played two favorite characters, last night, and exhibited his astonishing and versatile talents to a large and admiring audience. He is engaged for a few nights more, and will spear this evening as Rip Van Winkle.

Died,

This day at 12 o'clock, M, at his residence in Poplar st, 3d ward, Allegheny city, Mr JAMES METVILLE, aged 52 years.

The friends of the family and all others connected are respectfully invited to attend his funeral from his late residence, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, P M, without further notice. mar27

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—This celebrated remedy is a compound, balsamic preparation of the Wild Cherry and Moss of Iceland, combined by a new chemical progress with the Extract of Pine. So salutary have been its effects in all cases when administered for Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, or any disease of the lungs, that many of the most distinguished physicians have approved and recommended it, and openly acknowledged it to be the most valuable medicine ever discovered. It is truly a valuable medicine, and is effecting an immense amount of good in the relief of suffering humanity.

Valuable Real Estate for Sale.

WE are authorised to offer for sale, a fine farm, about four miles from Allegheny City Market, and four and one half miles from the Pittsburgh market, containing 114 acres. The land is good, a fair portion meadow land. The improvements are about 50 acres cleared and under good fence, two orchards of first rate fruit, vines and other fruits, a comfortable dwelling house containing 10 rooms, a new Frick Barn, stabling, &c. &c. The farm is well watered; (an act having passed the Legislature to make a Turnpike Road from Allegheny City to Perrysville, 3 miles beyond this farm, and as it must necessarily pass through it, a good road to market will thus be at once accomplished.) Chances of purchasing a farm so near the two best markets in the Western part of the State, and at such price as this will be sold, seldom occur. The title is perfect. Apply to BLAKELY & MITCHEL,

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

IMPORTANT RUMOR.—The Boston Times of Monday says:—"It was rumored very generally in State street on Friday, that there was something very interesting and important in relation to the Hibernia's stay among us at the present time. We learn that a gentleman who had heard that the Hibernia had received orders from Mr Pakenham to be in readiness to leave for England at an hour's notice, asked Capt Harrison (of the Hibernia,) if it was the case. We understand that the Captain replied that the report was not strictly correct—but that he had received orders before he left home from his government, to hold himself ready at short notice to take his departure.—It is also said that, for this reason, none of the officers on board can obtain leave of absence from the steamship. We understand in addition that the Hibernia has already taken on board her stores and fuel."

☞ The report that the American Consul was in prison at Matamoras, is contradicted by the N. O. Delta of the 18th inst.

MAKE WAY FOR CANADA!

The Liverpool Standard of the 3d inst. publishes an address from Canada to the Conservative members of the British Parliament, in which it is said:—

"Whether, therefore, England wishes it or not, Canada will certainly cut her connection immediately.

"The Canadians, by joining the United States, will continue all the privileges which England's colonies enjoy under a free trade system.

"In losing the British American colonies, England will lose employment for 30,000 sailors, and the finest naval nursery in the world, the amount of tonnage in that trade to all India and China.

"But it is not a simple loss to England; the command of the St Lawrence will give a gain to America equal in extent to our loss, thereby trebling her naval power, while it leaves her with no rival or enemy in the north"

The Standard says:—

"We cannot perceive upon what plea we can resist such a movement on the part of Canada, if it be resolved upon; or even defend much longer the granting of supplies to meet the cost of our establishments in that country."

CASSIMERES, of entire new styles; various qualities;
