PITTSBURGH, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 30, 1846

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.—We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, mustal ways be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!—The Furniture yet remaining at the Exchange, will be sold this morning at 10 o'clock, without reserve.

Pittsburgh Farmers' and Mechanics' Turnpike Road Company.

☞At an election held for officers of said Company, at the Toll House in Price street, on 28th inst., the following gentlemen were elected:

President—James S Craft.

Managers—David Beeler, Edward D. Gazzam, Joseph Colvert, James B Irwin, George Ledlie and Jacob Tomee.

Treasurer—William Eichbaum.

Coughs and Colds—In all cases of coughs and colds, the sufferers will find a pleasant but powerful remedy in Clickener's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pill.—The fame of this medicine has already spread far and wide. Over five hundred thousand boxes of these pills were sold last year, having been used in all as certained cases with perfect success. For liver complaint, affection of the lungs, palpitation of the heart, influenza, asthma, measles, fever and ague, dropsy, typhus fever, and other diseases. This pill is coated with fine white sugar, so that the medicinal ingredients are imperceptible to the taste. To children, they may be administered without difficulty. So well convinced is Dr Clickener of their efficacy in all specified cases, that he pledges himself to return the money when the promised effect is not produced.

Sold by Wm Jackson, corner of Wood and Liberty streets, who is general Agent for Dr Clickener's Pills in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

☞Beware of an imitation article called "Improved Sugar-Coated Pills," purporting to be Patented as both the pills and pretended patent are forgeries, got up by a miserable quack, in New York, who, for the last four or five years, has made his living by counterfeiting popular medicines.

mar 31.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—This celebrated remedy is a compound balsamic preparation of the Wild Cherry and Moss of Iceland, combined by a new chemical progress with the Extract of Pine. So salutary have been its effects in all cases when administered for Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, or any disease of the lungs, that many of the most distinguished physicians have approved and recommended it, and openly acknowledge it to be the most valuable medicine ever discovered. It is truly a valuable medicine, and is effecting an immense amount of good in the relief of suffering humanity.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

By the arrival of the brig P Soule, Capt Delville, from Havana, we have dates to the 10th inst. from that city, to the 28th February from Vera Cruz, and to the 23d from the city of Mexico. The intelligence is not of any decided importance. The English steamer Avon, from Vera Cruz, reached Havana on the 7th inst.

Nothing further has transpired in regard to the reception of Mr Slidell, the Mexican papers being silent on the subject.

The dismissal of Gen Almonte from the war department, and the appointment of Gen Tornel to the post, are fully confirmed, and are considered the most important items of intelligence from Mexico.

The Mexican steamer Guadaloupe had returned from Tampico, having landed her troops there. She reported at Vera Cruz that it was known at Tampico that the American camp at Corpus Christi had been broken up, and the troops had marched to the left bank of the Rio Grande, and there been repulsed by the Mexicans. This is all stuff, the general movement not taking place till eight days after the Avon left Vera Cruz. The Indicador of the 28th ultimo, notices the above report, and contradicts it. It says that it knew that three or four American vessels of war were lying at Matamoras, and that the American troops were on the Rio Grande. It says further that enlistments were going on rapidly at Matamoras, but that no action had occurred. These reports must have grown out of the advance of the reconnoitering parties.

In view of the speedy meeting of the Congress charged with the forming of a constitution, the press was anxiously discussing the grave questions of policy involved. One party insists upon maintaining the existing form of government—El Memorial Historico, La Reforma, and El Monitor being its organs. On the other hand, El Tiempo and La Epoca urge that the only possible hope for the safety of the country is the adoption of a system whose basis shall resemble the plan of Iguala. The leading features of this celebrated plan, which was proclaimed by Iturbide on the 24th February, 1821, were as follows:

"Art. 4. The government shall be a constitutional monarchy.

"Art. 8. His majesty Ferdinand VII shall be invited to the throne of the empire, and in case of his refusal, the Infantes Don Carlos and Don Francisco de Paula.

"Art. 9. Should his majesty Ferdinand VII and his august brothers decline the invitation, the nation is at liberty to turn it to the imperial throne any member of reigning families whom it may select."

Iturbide himself was soon called to the throne, and his subsequent fate is well known. The course pursued by El Tiempo, in advocating his plan of Iguala, excited a good deal of discussion, in that it, according to the opposing journals, but ill fulfilled the duty of a Cruz. of the 26th, we old lead to the belief that the offence said to be given by El Tiempo is exaggerated.

An important association of benevolence, consisting of Spaniards resident in Mexico, has been formed. It is called Sociedad de Beneficencia Espanola, and its establishment in that city, and the liberal subscriptions made to it, may be deemed significant.

On the 31 of February the conductas from the mines of Zacatecas, Guanajuato, and San Luis Potosi, set out from the interior city for Tampico. The amount was $2,200 000, or thereabouts, and of this sum the Avon took to England $2,056 012.

El Espectador of the 14th ult. states that the English house of Taylor, Jamison & Co. had obtained permission to import 10 000 quintals or hundred pound weights of cotton, and had actually paid the $100,000 of accruing duties.

THE ARMY OF OBSERVATION.—An extract of a letter, dated Corpus Christi, March 10, to the editor of the New Orleans Courier, from an officer of the army, says:

"The Dragoons and Ringgold's Light Artillery left on the 8th for the Rio Grande, the first by (Worth's) with Duncan's battery, on the 9th; and the second brigade, this morning. The third brigade, with Bragg's battery, will march to morrow morning, and General Taylor, with his staff, will follow at once. It is said that all the corps will unite on the Sal Colorado, and move on together towards Matamoras or Point Isabel, as it may then be determined. No one expects a fight.

"UNBLUSHING FRAUDS!"

OFFICE OF THE CANTON TEA COMPANY,
New York, March 16, 1846.

To the Inhabitants of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and the surrounding country.

OUR attention has this day been directed to an article that appeared in the "Pittsburgh Daily American," under date of 5th March instant, headed as above—and which has also appeared subsequently, in several of the Pittsburgh newspapers. We hasten to reply thereto.

We find that through these media we are successively charged with flagrant violations of the principles of truth and justice; but we are prepared to give you a triumphant vindication of our character. We, however, exceedingly regret that in so doing, we shall have to allude to our respected contemporaries the "Pekin Tea Company of New York"—their position—their history, and their manner of doing business will necessarily, in some degree, have to come under examination. All that we can do is to endeavor to keep the following developments within the limits of your neighborhood; out of which locality, we trust, for the credit's sake of whom it may concern, the questions at issue may remain undiscussed. Far from having a malicious intention in what we are about to divulge, we do so merely from the very justifiable motive of self protection—we would fain render good for evil; this we solemly declare. Taking this laudable stand we reply, first, to the charge as follows:

"They (The Canton Tea Company) have published a handbill, in which they have appropriated, word for word, the favorable notices of the Pekin Company's teas in all the leading journals of New York, and other cities, simply altering the name of the Company from the Pekin to the Canton Tea Company."

And further down in the column this charge is repeated, though modified as follows:

"This handbill bears the impress of the Company, and appears to have been issued, if not by it, at least upon its authority."

Now we deny ever issuing—we deny ever authorising—we deny ever perusing such a handbill.—Truly we cannot always control the actions of our agents, at a remote distance, in relation to the methods they employ to facilitate the sale of our Teas; but as soon as we discover any thing improper in this respect, we invariably discountenance it, and urge that a strict regard to honor and giveliness might characterize all the means they use for their disposition.—By one of our concern Agents, probably, the handbill in question may have been issued but we deny that it ever had our sanction or authority.

We cannot, however, dismiss this subject without touching upon the morality of these notices. They are represented as emanating, spontaneously, from the Editors of New York and other Newspapers, and to arise from an impression of the great commercial arrangements and general appreciation of the teas of the Pekin Tea Company. We beg leave to set you right on that subject. We are prepared to prove, on oath if required, that every favorable notice in the New York papers, referred to, were WRITTEN by the Pekin Tea Company THEMSELVES, and that when at its entire ease the said "favorable notices" were inserted in consideration of an expensive advertisement being bestowed upon the papers wherein such editorials appear ed. All this we are prepared to prove, from the admission of one of their own Agents (Hamilton)—accordingly, by the advertising Agent they formerly employed—thirdly, by the testimony of most of the New York Editors themselves. So much for their "favorable notices" in the public records.

The method we adopted in prosecuting our business being essentially at variance with any modification of deception, we never resort to the publication of such notices. Every business man in New York is well acquainted with the origin as well as the merits of such effusions, owing to which its utility here has long since ceased, and it rather diminishes than adds to the respectability of any New York establishment.

We next review the paragraph wherein we are charged as fraudulent imitators of the Pekin Company. This is the only tenable ground in the case of the Liver, accompanied by indigestion of the most obstinate character, was persuaded to accept of a box, on condition that nothing was to be paid for it, if they did not afford her the necessary relief. I must confess, we ourselves had very little faith in the matter, knowing as we did, that her complaint was one of long standing, and had been unsuccessfully treated by the most eminent Physicians of this and several neighboring cities. But we had determined to give the medicine a fair trial, and if it proved to be worthless, it would be a source of satisfaction to know it, both to you and to us. No less to our joy than surprise, how ever, only a few days had elapsed, when the lady again presented herself at our counter and enquired for another box. "I really think, Mr. Williams," says she, "that your Pills are beginning to work a great change in my health, and altogether for the better. When I took the second dose, I began to feel much better than I did at first; the pain in my side was considerably relieved, my appetite began to improve; and the blood seemed to circulate through my veins as it did in my youthful days. Since then, I have taken the remainder of the Pills, and my improvement has been sensibly progressing at every repetition of the dose. I have no doubt that a few more boxes will effectually cure me." The result was as she predicted. Her health is completely restored. The flush of youth and beauty has returned to her cheeks, and the prospect of a long and a happy life is before her. I am satisfied she will never forget the Clickenny Sugar Coated Pills. As might naturally be supposed, the news of this extraordinary cure was rapidly disseminated through the city and adjacent country; and scarcely a week had elapsed, before enquiries began to be made for Clickener's Sugar-Coated, Purgative Pills; and the demand has already increased to such an extent, that we find the greatest difficulty in supplying it. In fact, if it did not seem like exaggeration, I might almost say that we are literally besieged by women and children, laboring under every possible ailment
