Transportation Lines. 1846. 障壁 Independent Portable Boat Line, For the Transportation of Produce, and Merchandise, to and from PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE AND PHILADELPHIA. No Transhipment, THE subscribers, Agents for a number of the best Portable Boats, forming a regular daily Line, be tween Pittsburgh and the Eastern cities, will be fully prepared, on the opening of navigation, to ship a large amount of Produce and Merchandise with despatch an accommodating terms. and on accommodating terms.

The greatsuccess which has characterised this mod ransportation on the Penna? Canals and Railroads, during the last few years, notwithstanding the opposition of long established companies, and is a pretty sure indication of its superiority over the old plan of transhipping at the different terminous of canals and railroads. we therefore ask for the Independent Portable Boat Line a liberal share of patronage.

Produce or Merchardise consigned to us for shipment will be forwarded immediately on arrival free of any charge for commission, storage or insurance.

PROPRIETORS. WM. BINGHAM, JACOB DOCK, WM. A. STRATTON. THOS. BINGHAM Conducted on Sabbath-keeping principles. HE Proprietors of the old established Line ha L. thoroughly recruited and renewed their stock, and are well prepared to forward Produce and Merchandise on the opening of mayigation.

The long experience of the Proprietors in the carrying business, with their watchful attention to the interests of customers, induces them to hope that the patronage heretofore extended to "Bingham's Line" will be continued and increased. Doeming the usual self-glorifying style of adverti ing too absurd for imitation, and believing that with former customers we need no self-commendation, w would merely invite such as have not heretofore patronised our Line, to give us a trial.

Our rates of freight shall at all times be as low a the lowest that are charged by a her responsible Lines.

Produce and Merchandise will be received and forwarded without any charge for advertising, Storage or Commission. Bills of lading promptly forwarded, and every direction carefully attended to.
