insignorados; out or which ideality, we trust, for the credit's sake of whom if may concern, the questions -ist issue may remain and iscussed. Far from having a malicious intention in what we are about to dividge, we do so merely from the very justifiable motive of self protection—we would fain render good for exil/ this we solemly declare. Taking this landable stand we reply, first, to the charge as follows: "They (The Canton Tea Company) have publish-ed a handbill, in which they have appropriated, word for word, the favorable notices of the Pekin Comps, ay's teas in all the leading journals of New York, and other cities, simply altering the name of the Company from the Pekin to the Canton Tea Company." And farther down in the column this charge is re-peated, though modified us follows: "This handbill bears the impress of the Company, and appears to have been issued, if not by it, at least upon its authority." Now we deay cer rissing such as handbill— Truly we cannot 'always' control the actions of our agents, at a remote distance, in relation to the meth-ods they employ tif facilitate the sale of our Teas; but as soon as we discover any thing improper in this re-spect. we invariably discountenance it, and urge that a strict resard to bonor and unrightness micht abave. e it, and urge that less might characbeing essentially at variance with any modification of deception, we never resort to the publication of such tices. Every business man in New York is well ac-minted with the origin, as well as the merits, of such Theo censed, and it rather diminishes than adds to the respectability of any New York establishment. We next review the paragraph wherein we are charged as fraudulast imitators of the Fekin Com-pany. It will be found nearly at the head of the soid ar-ticle. It reads as follows:--"It is well known to most of our readers that the Pekin Tea Company of New York, an association of heavy capitalists of that city, have established agen-cies in Pekin and Canton for the purpose of selecting Teas, and putting them un them from where the hes than adds to the Teas, and putting them up there, from whence they are shipped direct to the Company at New York.-These teas have obtained a high reputation, and have These tess have obtained a high reputation, and have become the subject of frequent notices in the public prints. The subject of frequent notices in the public due organization of another called the "Centon Tea Company," who admit that they are not importers, but purchase their Teas from the promiacuous arrivals in New York, where they are put up in a manner to im-itate those of the Pekin Tea Company." Now, in the latter part of this paragraph isstated a falsekood so glaring, that an attempt to support it in any Atlantic city would subject any editor to universal indicule, and in New York he would be regarded as a consummate have, if not an absolute madman. We are astonished to find that any Pittsburgh editor, hav-ing access (as must necessarily be the case) to New York journals for years past, can be so deplorably ig-norant of the fact that the Cauton Tea Company have been established in New York First FLARSt-and also, of the former. Here then is a fraud truly unblushing -nay, verily abominable. We are also reflected on as being an inferior con-cers, becauso "we select our Teas from the promiscu-ous cargoes which arrive." How much more com-mendable to come out with the plain truth than to recort to such vile falsehoods as appear in the begin-ning of the paragraph now under review. The words, are "The Pekin Tea Company of New York, an asso-ciation of heavy capitalists in that city." Ac.-(Let the reader refer.) Is it possible that the inhabitants of Pittabargh can swallow all this.' In this city (New York) every counting-house lad, of fourteen years old, knows better. Let any individual who would satisfy himself on the subject, refer to the files of the Courier and Enquirer, Journal of Commerce, or Commercial Advertiser, which he may find at any large Hotel in Pittaburgh and ace, iftin the lines of imported merchan-diae, he can discover that any entries of Teas have BELL & GRANT. corner of Liberty and Ferry stein where choice Teas of all descriptions are constantly
