THE THEATRE.—Mr Oxley's Hamlet, on Wednesday evening, was witnessed and admired by a large and very attentive audience. We never have seen a part make a deeper impression upon those present, or command more universal respect; all appeared to be impressed with the beauty and volemnity of the piece. Mr Oxley has improved very much; he is now will run as a regular packet between ST Trimble-Sir: The bottle of Sellers' Imperial yet his heavy scenes are thrilling and overwhelming:
he is certainly a mag of fine talents among the first series effect in relieving the oppression of my breast, To-night, the celebrated play of King Henry the FV, will, by request, be repeated; the part of Sir Hospur, Mr Oxley; Pince Hal, Mr Morris; Douglass, Mr Smith; Poins, Mr Whoram. It will indeed be rich in the extreme; remember there is always estates of family. he is certainly a man of fine talents—among the first of his profession. Thousands of children, and many persons of mature age, are dying weekly, because they over look the only medicine which is infallible in diseases of that kind. That medicine is Clickner's Sugar Costed Vegetable Purgative Pills, which have been successful, in cases of the greatest obstinacy, and where all other remedies had, troved unavailing. Physicians of the highest eminance, have prescribed them in their practice, and they have been highly recommended by a committee of the American Institute, appointed to a committee of the American Institute, appointed to investigate their merits. Let those who have never used them cosent to make a single trial, and they will never have cause to regret their determination.—In case of failure, if such a thing is possible, the money will in all cases be returned.
