The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 15, 1846.

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.—We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, mutual ways be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved.

THEATRE.—The beautiful play of Ion was played last night, for the second time this season, to a full and fashionable audience. The principal characters were well sustained. Mrs Lewis was thrilling in some scenes. Mr Smith played his part as he always does, excellent; Mulholland was also good and is a very useful man.

To-night, the old favorite "Old Logan," is up for a Benefit, and has selected that sterling Comedy the "School for Scandal." Beside the strength of the new large and talented company, we will have the first appearance of Mr and Mrs Howard, who are reported as being excellent. "Old Logan" appears as Sir Peter Teazle.

☞ We have received a copy of the History and extraordinary adventures of Margaret Cathpole, a Suffolk girl, by the Rev. Richard Carlodd. It contains nearly two hundred pages, and from the reputation of the author we should suppose it to be a very interesting work. It is for sale at J. L. Read's, 4th street, near Market.

Correspondence of the "Morning Post."

Harrisburgh, April 6, 1846.

This was a glorious day in the House. The debate on the Right of Way, was kept up by Messrs Edie Burrell, Bigham and Nicholson in favor; and Messrs Kunkle, Wessel and Haley, in opposition; the latter gentleman assailed the address issued some time since by the Pittsburghers at this place calling the Allegheny city Convention. Mr Kunkle had the proceedings of the Allegheny Convention in his hand, and remarked particularly upon the resolution which proposes to defend to defend the Rail Road if made by consent of the people—he pronounced it treason, and called upon the Members from Allegheny to say whether they intended to stand by the resolutions adopted by the Allegheny Convention. Mr Brackenridge rose and with uplifted hands, said emphatically "Yes"—as man, "if denied our rights we will make use of the means given us by God and nature," if that is treason make the most of it. Mr Kunkle said "be bold Patrick Henry, No. 2," pointing to Mr. Brackenridge. The debate was continued until the hour of adjournment. The friends of the bill looked more cheerful to day. SNYDER.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—This celebrated remedy is a compound balsamic preparation of the Wild Cherry and Moss of Iceland, combined by a new chemical progress with the Extract of Pine. So salutary have been its effects in all cases when administered for Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, or any disease of the lungs, that many of the most distinguished physicians have approved and recommended it, and openly acknowledged it to be the most valuable medicine ever discovered. It is truly a valuable medicine, and is effecting an immense amount of good in the relief of suffering humanity.

CURE OF BODY AND MIND.—The following is from a worthy citizen of Kensington, and a member of the Methodist church:

Philadelphia, Jan 6, 1846

Dr. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir:—Justice compels me to make the following statement of the extraordinary effects of your valuable medicine, the ALTERATIVE.

I certify that my wife was afflicted for fourteen years, during which time her disease baffled the skill of several eminent physicians. Finding that every means that were used failed to relieve her, I concluded to place her in the Pennsylvania Hospital, hoping that, under the care and treatment she would there receive from the Physicians in that institution, she might again be restored to health. But to my great disappointment, she grew worse and became deranged in her mind, and I was obliged to take her home again, "INCURABLE" and BEREFT OF REASON. I will here mention that at this time the more prominent symptoms of her disease were Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, attended with sickness of the stomach, and vomiting of a very offensive fœtid mucous, pains in her head, back and stomach, and through the region of the heart, a troublesome cough from large quantities of phlegm in her throat, which kept her continually gagging and retching to throw it up. She had no appetite, and was very weak. She also suffered very much from a uterine disease by which she was confined to her bed, having entirely lost the use of her limbs, and for several months we had to lift her in and out of bed. And to all the above, the deranged state of her mind (which at this time was truly awful,) and you will be able to form some idea of her afflictions.

By the advice of a friend we commenced giving her your ALTERATIVE, in the doses of a teaspoonful three times a day, and found that it helped her. We also gave her your Vermifuge, to increase her appetite, and the Sanative Pills to regulate her bowels. She had not taken two bottles of the Alterative, before it operated upon her in a wonderful manner, filling her face with small red pimples, and caused her to expectorate large quantities of corruption, before which, her breath was so offensive we could not remain in the room with her unless the doors were open. Finding the Alterative doing her so much good, we increased the dose according to the directions, and she continued to improve daily, until finally, she was restored to health in body as well asin mind.

I hope you will delay no time in laying this before the public, as I am willing to be qualified at any time to the truth of the above statement, and that it was your ALTERATIVE which cured her.

All persons will be convicted of the truth of this statement, by calling at my house in Bedford street above Marlboro. Yours, with respect,
SAMUEL FIELDS.

Cough Balsam.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 8, 1845.

I DO certify that I procured a bottle of B A Fahnestock & Co's Pneumonic or Cough Balsam, which I used for the removal of a severe cold, attended by a disagreeable cough. I had not taken the Balsam but about three or four times, when I ceased to cough, and found my breast lightened of the unpleasant feeling which a severe cold generally produces. I am entirely free of a cough; others to my knowledge, who have used it, have also found relief.
SAMUEL YOUNG.

Pittsburgh, Jan 30th, 1845.

This may certify that I have been troubled with a severe cough since last fall, until about two weeks, when I procured a bottle of B A Fahnestock & Co's Cough Balsam, which has entirely relieved me.
E. YOUNG, 7th st.

Pittsburgh, Feb 13th, 1845.

This may certify that some time since, last fall I caught cold, attended by a cough which was so troublesome as to prevent me from getting sufficient sleep —the cough would came on in paroxisms which would last half an hour. Last month I procured a bottle of B A Fahnestock & Co's Cough Balsam, which has entirely removed the cough.

"UNBLUSHING FRAUDS!"

OFFICE OF THE CANTON TEA COMPANY,
New York, March 16, 1846.

To the Inhabitants of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and the surrounding countries.

OUR attention has this day been directed to an article that appeared in the "Pittsburgh Daily American," under date of 5th March instant, headed as above—and which has also appeared subsequently, in several of the Pittsburgh newspapers. We hasten to reply thereto.

We find that through these media we are successively charged with flagrant violations of the principles of truth and justice; but we are prepared to give you a triumphant vindication of our character. We, however, exceedingly regret that in so doing, we shall have to allude to our respected contemporaries the "Pekin Tea Company of New York"—their position—their history, and their manner of doing business will necessarily, in some degree, have to come under examination. All that we can do is to endeavor to keep the following developments within the limits of your neighborhood; out of which locality, we trust, for the credit's sake of whom it may concern the questions at issue may remain undiscussed. Far from having a malicious intention in what we are about to divulge, we do so merely from the very justifiable motive of self protection—we would fain render good for evil; this we solemly declare. Taking this laudable stand we reply, first, to the charge as follows:

"They (The Canton Tea Company) have publish ed a handbill, in which they have appropriated, word for word, the favorable notices of the Pekin Company's teas in all the leading journals of New York and other cities, simply altering the name of the Company from the Pekin to the Canton Tea Company."

And farther down in the column this charge is repeated, though modified as follows:

"This handbill bears the impress of the Company, and appears to have been issued, if not by it, at least upon its authority."

Now we deny ever issuing—we deny ever authorizing—we deny ever perusing such a handbill—Truly we cannot always control the actions of our agents, at a remote distance, in relation to the methods they employ to facilitate the sale of our Teas; but as soon as we discover any thing improper in this respect, we invariably discountenance it, and urge that a strict regard to honor and uprightness might characterize all the means they use for their disposition.—By one of our remote Agents, probably, the handbill in question may have been issued, but we deny that it ever had our sanction or authority.

We cannot, however, dismiss this subject without touching upon the marvellous nature of these notices. They are represented as containing, spontaneously, from the Editors of New York and other Newspapers, and to arise from an impression of the great commercial importance unsurpassed. By the Regular Line of Packets, between Havre and New York, and from the Factory, which is always in active operation, and uniformly supplied with the best workmen the country can furnish, frequent additions, during the Spring and Summer, will be made to the goods in store.—Prices moreover, will be so extremely moderate as to meet the views of the most economical, and satisfy merchants and house keepers disposed to examine and judge for themselves, that their interest will be essentially subserved, by buying at this Establishment.
