 The method we adopted in prosecuting our business being eisentially at variance with any modification of deception, we never resort to the publication of such notices. Every business man in New York is well ac-minited with the origin, as well as the merits, of such editorialism, owing to which its utility here has long ince ceased, and it rather diminivhes than adds to the respectability of any New York establishment.
 We next review the paragraph wherein we are charged as fraudulent imitators of the Pekin Com-min ticle. It reads as follows: It is well known to most of our readers that the Pekin Tea Company of New York, an association of heavy capitalists of that city, have established agen-cies in Pekin and Canton for the purposo of selecting Teas, and putting them up there, from whence they
