

THE PITTSBURGH DAILY MORNING POST.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 13, 1840.

A Mac Downer—On the downward trip of the steamer Conant yesterday, unfortunately on entering lock No. 3, the took aaving and struck upon the shales, jaring her severely. At this the second lock became frightened, and made a leeward and was drowned. The heaviest not injured.

Boat No. 2, Beavry—We learn from the clerk of the Wisconsin, arrived last evening, that the boat had been wrecked at Cincinnati, and that the crew were rescued. It is thought to be an extraordinary case.

Theater—Last night, we set apart for the benefit of Mr. Lewis. The piece selected was Monk Lewis' thrilling tragedy of "Aldelgitha." The audience was large, respectable and attentive. The players performed their several parts well, and the play went off with considerable success and applause.

Mr. Morass performed his part with usual ease and happy manner. Mr. Farnesack, also did his part remarkably well. Notwithstanding his strenuous duties as Stage Manager, he labored in and gave his pieces their full effect, and is very successful.

Mr. Howard as Polly Anne was really excellent. She is a very good actress, and plays great attention to her acting—she was worthy of the place. She looked upon, as a very good actress.

Mr. Howard as Polly Anne was really excellent. She is a very good actress, and plays great attention to her acting—she was worthy of the place. She looked upon, as a very good actress.

Mr. Howard as Polly Anne was really excellent. She is a very good actress, and plays great attention to her acting—she was worthy of the place. She looked upon, as a very good actress.

Mr. Howard as Polly Anne was really excellent. She is a very good actress, and plays great attention to her acting—she was worthy of the place. She looked upon, as a very good actress.

Mr. Howard as Polly Anne was really excellent. She is a very good actress, and plays great attention to her acting—she was worthy of the place. She looked upon, as a very good actress.

POSTSCRIPT.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

From the Baltimore Sun.—Confirmation of the capture of Lieutenant Thornton's command, and the prompt action at New Orleans. The Southern mail failed to connect with Washington, last evening, the boat not having arrived until 7 o'clock.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

Another astonishing cure. Wm. W. B. of the City of New York, writes to the Editor of the Post, that he has been cured of a long-standing complaint, which he had suffered from for many years.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, May 12.

Wheat—The market for wheat is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Corn—The market for corn is also quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Flour—The market for flour is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Wool—The market for wool is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Oil—The market for oil is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Iron—The market for iron is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Steel—The market for steel is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Lead—The market for lead is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Zinc—The market for zinc is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Copper—The market for copper is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, May 12.

Wheat—The market for wheat is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Corn—The market for corn is also quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Flour—The market for flour is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Wool—The market for wool is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Oil—The market for oil is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Iron—The market for iron is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Steel—The market for steel is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Lead—The market for lead is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Zinc—The market for zinc is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Copper—The market for copper is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, May 12.

Wheat—The market for wheat is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Corn—The market for corn is also quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Flour—The market for flour is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Wool—The market for wool is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Oil—The market for oil is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Iron—The market for iron is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Steel—The market for steel is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Lead—The market for lead is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Zinc—The market for zinc is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Copper—The market for copper is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, May 12.

Wheat—The market for wheat is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Corn—The market for corn is also quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Flour—The market for flour is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Wool—The market for wool is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Oil—The market for oil is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Iron—The market for iron is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Steel—The market for steel is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Lead—The market for lead is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Zinc—The market for zinc is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Copper—The market for copper is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, May 12.

Wheat—The market for wheat is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Corn—The market for corn is also quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Flour—The market for flour is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Wool—The market for wool is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Oil—The market for oil is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Iron—The market for iron is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Steel—The market for steel is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Lead—The market for lead is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Zinc—The market for zinc is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

Copper—The market for copper is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The demand is not very strong, and the supply is abundant.

CINCINNATI PACKETS.

FOR CINCINNATI.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.

The regular mail and passenger steamer "CINCINNATI," Capt. Isaac Bennett, will run as a regular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, leaving this port every Monday at 10 o'clock.