The Theatre.

Mr. SILLSBEE, had a glorious benefit last night; the house was well filled, the large audience were much pleased, and not without cause, for the performances were truly excellent and amusing. Every part was well "done up." Mrs. HOWARD, done full justice to that excellent song, "I'll be no submissive wife." We have never heard it so well sung. Mr. SILLSBEE, was, as usual, the real critter. He has closed a successful engagement and established a high character for himself, as a faithful delineator of Yankee character.

To-night, the excellent Drama of "Rob Roy Macgregor." The play is an excellent one, and from an examination of the caste of characters, we are satisfied that it will be admirably performed

ADMITTED.—On Friday last, on motion of Jas. Dunlop, Esq., Mr. H. C. BEELEN was admitted to practice as a Counsellor in the District Court of this county.

Clickener's Sugar-coated Vegetable Pills.—All diseases have their origin in impurity of blood.—However excellent the general health, there is no security against fever, where the blood is impure, as indicated by eruptions of the skin, vertigo, headache, lassitude, &c. The best purifier of the blood is Clickner's Sugar-coated Pills, which is so skilfully compounded, that it does not cause griping, the great objection to all pills. The enevelope of sugar prevents all nausea, so that, save from the powerful, yet easy operation, the patient would hardly be aware that he had taken any medicine at all. So well convinced is Dr. Clickner of the efficacy of his pills in all specified cases, that he is pledged to return the money, when the promised effect is not produced.

Sold by Wm. Jackson, corner of Wood and Liberty streets, who is general Agent for Dr. Clickener's Pills in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

☞Beware of an imitation article called "Improved Sugar-Coated Pills," purporting to be patented, as both the pills and pretended patent are forgeries, got up by a miserable quack in New York, who, for the last four or five years, has made his living by counterfeiting popular medicines. may14

SONGS FOR THE PEOPLE.

AIR—"And you'll remember me.

What other joys, what other hopes
May fill the heart with glee,
Give me the greatest soap of soaps—
Oh! JONES's SOAP for me.
When pimples come upon the face
As I've seen come on thee,
If you would these defects erase,
Oh! do remember me.

When winter's winds, with rugged power,
May chap the hands and face;
When summer's sun your charms deflower,
Will burn and tan each grace;
When freckles or when yellow skin
From face or neck should flee—
At such a moment I must win,
And you'll remember me.

Then JONES's SOAP will show its power
Upon your face and neck—
Your skin more clear than fairest flower,
Without a blotch or speck;
And then from freckles, pimples tan,
Your skin will be quite free—
Thus you'll be made the love of man—
And you'll remember me.

Sold at JACKSON'S Patent Medicine Warehouse, 89 Liberty street, head of Wood—at the same place is sold the Moorish Hair Dye and Spanish Lilly White.

Principal Office—Sign of the American Eagle, 83 Chatham st., New York.

AIR—"The Old House at Home."

O that old head of mine, where my jetty hair dwelt,
And where scurf or where dandriff was never yet felt,
Where my love so oft rambled, (that is,) her thoughts and her fingers,
'Tis on that hair of mine that my fancy now lingers.

Yet dearer, far dearer than aught living or dead,
Is that beautiful hair that then grew on my head.

But though I thus do complain that my hair was long lost,
It is once more restored, at a very small cost;
For I have bought for three shillings—'tis a trifle to give
For a bottle of JONES' famed Hair Restorative;
And now dearer, far finer than 'twas ever before.
Is my hair, since Jones's famed Hair stuff did it thus restore.

It is an honest truth, that a 3s. bottle of Jones's Coral Hair Restorative will give any one a good head of hair. It forces the hair to grow, stops its falling off, cures scurf, and dresses the hair, keeping it in order, thrice as long as any thing else made—just try it. Sold at JACKSON'S Patent Medicine Warehouse, 89 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, head of Wood—at the same place is sold the Moorish Hair Dye; Spanish Lilly White and Italian Chemical Soap.

ELIZABETH BENTON; or Religion in connection with Fashionable Life, 18mo. Just received and for sale at COOK'S, 85 Fourth street.

To the Inhabitants of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and the surrounding Country.

IT was not our desire to enter into any dispute with the "Pekin Tea Company." We did not begin the controversy—we deprecate a paper war, or any other war, and profess ourselves to be advocates of universal peace; but when we found statements made to the public with such unblushing disregard to truth as was exhibited in the Pekin Tea Company's attack upon our establishment, we considered it a duty we owed to that public, as well as to ourselves, to repel it by a plain statement of facts.

The moral qualifications of some people are so convenient that they can believe any thing that they like—or what is the same thing, by putting a good face upon a fabrication, and repeating it three or four times, they are enabled to assume all the earnestness and sincerity of truth, and notwithstanding the extravagance of their statements, and their total opposition to facts, their neighbors are called very "ill mannered" if they presume to question or doubt their veracity. Thus, though it is stated that five hundred thousand dollars worth of Black Tea was imported by the Pekin Tea Company, we suppose we must swallow it at once, or incur their displeasure; but we cannot help being reminded of the story of a "thousand black cats," which a boy declared he saw upon the garden wall, which, upon inquiry, dwindled down to his father's old tom cat and another; and we suspect that these five hundred thousand dollars worth of black tea, if a similar test was applied, would diminish it in about the same proportion. And yet the agent declares that no mysteries are presented! They have an agent at Pekin, but he is incog. They have another at Canton, but he is equally unknown; and at New York they receive $500,000 worth of black tea, which every body at the Custom House is ignorant of! Now we confess that these things appear so strange to us—so exceedingly mysterious, as to shock our credulity not a little, and at the risk of being still considered "ill mannered," we must persist in classing such announcements with the quackeries and humbugs of the day.

It was also stated that the Canton Tea Company was imitators of them; or in other words, that allured by their success, we had been induced to organize our present establishment—whereas, in point of fact, we had, as already stated, carried on our business successfully FOUR YEARS before the Pekin Tea Company was heard of! And without a arrogating to ourselves any great degree of sagacity or penetration we may venture to assert that it was the unparalelled success of the Canton Tea Company, the universal celebrity of their teas, and the increasing demand for the same, that gave birth to the Pekin Tea Company, and in fact that the very existence of that establishment is an acknowledgement of the superiority of our method of business, and of the preference we have obtained.

Many other statements, equally unfounded, we have already examined, and the audacity displayed in these specimens will sufficiently show the degree of reliance to which any other statements from the Pekin Tea Company are entitled.

Apart from the higher obligation of truth, we have always considered it bad policy to resort to any unfair means. In order to sustain our own character we have never found it necessary to detract our neighbor's, or to write our own panegyrics and then attempt to palm them off upon the public as the disinterested notices of editors of newspapers, which it is well known might easily be done without any further bribery than paying for them as advertisements. That the Pekin Tea Company thought fit to adopt a different course, is no concern of ours, and we should not have interfered with their proceedings if they had left us unmolested. But they had probably forgotten the proverb, "those who live in glass houses should not fling stones." Nearly six years have elapsed since the Canton Tea Company commenced operations in this city; and as might have been anticipated, they have had to encounter the prejudices of the ignorant as well as to experience the grossest misrepresentations of weak and interested parties. Hitherto we have only smiled at their puny assaults which have only recoiled upon the parties themselves—we have confidently relied upon the intrinsic merits of our own Tea, and we have every reason to be proud of the result. Despairing, therefore, of any success in this vicinity, this rival establishment is obliged to carry its fabrications to a distance, and then, by pompous announcements on the one hand, (which it will know would be laughed at here,) and a disparagement of the Canton Tea Company on the other, where the facts are not known, it hopes to impose upon the unwary. A greater proof of its having calculated upon the ignorance of the community need not be adduced than the fact of their agents presuming to institute a comparison respecting the localities and dimensions of the warehouses of the two establishments, when it is well known that the single branch of the Canton Tea Co. at 163 Greenwich st. would more than compare with the small store it has contented itself with until a very recent period, situated as it was in the most obscure part of Fulton street, and with the present addition it has made, no one would think of comparing it with the splendid store the Canton Tea Company have just opened at 125 Chatham st. The value of property in the localities will show the estimation of business men, and their decision has been pronounced too long and too emphatically in favor of the localities of the Canton Tea Company, to require any comments.

The Canton Tea Company have never pretended to import all the teas that they dispose of for the single reason that a cargo of teas must necessarily be made up of many inferior sorts, many of which are unwholesome and never find the way into their establishment. They prefer selecting their stock from the whole of the various cargoes that arrive from time to time, and from their long experience in this country and in Europe, as well as their unlimited command of capital, they have always been enabled to secure the delicious teas for which they have become so justly celebrated, and at prices that have defied competition. It is this notorious fact that has excited the ire of so many parties, and we should doubtless have escaped the wrath of our neighbors of the Pekin Tea Company, if they had not so well understood as well as felt its truth.

In conclusion we will only add that we entertain no ill feeling toward the Pekin Tea Company; but we warn them against circulating falsehoods at our expense—sooner or later it must come to our knowledge, as we have now agencies throughout the Union, and they may rely on it that we shall not fail to expose them in whatever quarter they are carried.

STONE & McCOLLUM'S
GREAT WESTERN CIRCUS.

MR. S. Q. STONES, Director and Principal Agent.

THE proprietors of the Great Western Circus respectfully announce to their patrons that this Company has been in the course of organization for the past twelve months, and from the facilities the managers have had the past winter, they have been enabled to make selections of performers from Spaulding's North American Circus, Stickney's New Orleans Circus, and Howe & Mables New York Circus, thereby forming a galaxy of performers that would be made bright particular stars in any of the companies of the present day.

Will open on Friday evening, May the 15th, on the Lot in front of Murray's American Hotel, formerly Broadhurst Mansion House, for a few nights only.

In the arrangement of the interior, the utmost attention has been carefully held in view as regards the comforts of the audience. The seats are constructed on a new and improved style, and capable of containing 800 persons. The pit is arranged entirely around the arena in front of the dress circle, thereby making the arrangement for viewing the performances infinitely better than in any of the preceding Companies that have visited Pittsburgh.

The proprietors state without any vaunting boast, that the arrangements and fit out of this, the Great Western Circus, is superior, in every sense of the word, to any like establishment in the Union.

The Brass Band, as arranged under the guidance of the leader, H. Gaull, was selected with care and precision, from the orchestras of the St. Charles, American, and French Theatres, not only forming a Brass Band, but a very superior String Band, so requisite to give effect to the Ballets and Pantomines that are produced in the arena of this, the Circus of 1846.

The names of performers consist of the following gems of the arena;

Mr. T. McCollum, the best two horse rider in the world.

Mr. E. Stone, the acknowledged best bare backed Equestrian.

Mr. D. W. Stone, the unsurpassed melo-dramatic Horseman.

Mr. Wm. Day, so well known throughout the West as the multiform man.

Mr. John Smith, the great Negro Delineator, and Picaniny Coleman, his original and celebrated Pupil.

Mrs. J. Smith, principal female Equestrian.

Master of the Menage and director of the circle, John Shay.

The three Clowns are unsurpassed, and consist of Green Johnson, principal, grote-esque, and performing Clown; Joe Claven, the Monsut and Mezzo Clown; Wm. Worrell, the Drollerist and Pierrot.

To enhance the sports of the circle, the following auxillaries are attached to the company.

H. Long, J. Jones, S. J. Hendricks, W. Lake, J. Brown, H. Raggles, T. Young, G. Smith, C. Wilson.

The costume and property maker of this establishment, Mons. Trundt, having had an experience of ten years in the principal Circus Companies in France, Germany, and lastly, at Ducrow's Amphitheatre, is fully competent to the task.

The Band, as arranged, compose the following artists and professors;

Mr. H. Gaul, Leader of Brass Band; Mr. A. Tellow, Leader of the String Band; Mr. E. Teltow, Arranger and Copyist; E. Johnson; J. Charlton; J. Whitford, M. Marchetti; H. Kent; G. Miner, Mons. Feyn; W. Metzler; Sig Capuchini.

☞Admission to Dress Circles 50 cents; Children with parents half price. Pit 25 cents—no half price.

A regular police has been engaged to enforce the strictest order and decorum.

☞Tickets of admission can be obtained at the various hotels and at the box office.

Pittsburgh Navigation and Fire Insurance Company.

OFFICE. NO. 21 MARKET STREET.

THE citizens of Pittsburgh continue to be offered an opportunity to effect insurance upon their property, by a Domestic institution located among themselves, based upon domestic capital, and conducted by directors, in whose prudence, integrity and good faith they can readily ascertain whether they may repose that undoubted security which should ever attend an insurance transaction.

To persons whose propery has already been damaged or destroyed by fire or water, the advantage of personally adjusting the loss with an institution at HOME, will be strikingly evident. To those who suffered by the Great Fire, this particular corporation needs no recommendation. The prompt payment of the whole amount of its losses—NEARLY TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS—is to them a sufficient guarantee of future security.

It is the part of all prudent men, however fortunate, to anticipate calamity for the purpose of avoiding its effects. To such as have hitherto escaped, as well as to those who have sustained loss, the facility of protection and indemnity, offered by this institution, will be the strongest inducement to avoid the reflections and regrets which must be experienced by those who suffer without hope of restitution.

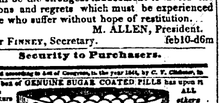
Security to Purchasers.



CLICKENER'S SUGAR COATED VEGETABLE PILLS are the first and only Medicine ever known that will positively cure

Headache, Giddiness, Rheumatism, Piles, Dispepsia, Scurvy, Small Pox, Jaundice, Pains in the Back, Inward Weakness, Palpitation of the Heart, Rising in the Throat, Dropsy, Asthma, Fevers of all kinds, Female Complaints, Measles, Salt Rheum, Heartburn, Worms, Cholera Morbus, Coughs, Quinsy, Whooping Cough, Consumption, Fits, Liver Complaint, Erysipelas, Deafness, Itchings of the Skin, Colds, Gout, Gravel, Nervous Complaints, And all other diseases originating from impurities of the blood.

☞They have cured, since their introduction, over 2,000 persons, who have been given up as hopeless cases, by the most eminent Physicians.

☞They are patronized and recommended by men of the highest distinction, among whom are—

Hon. David R. Porter,	Hon. Henry Clay,
Hon. John Q. Adams,	Hon. Daniel Webster,
Hon. Martin Van Buren,	Hon. J. C. Calhoun,
Gen. Winfield Scott,	Col. R. M. Johnson,
Hon. James K. Polk,	Gen. Lewis Cass.

☞Their virtues are so infallible that the money will be returned in all cases they do not give universal satisfaction. Although but two and a half years have elapsed since these celebrated Pills were first introduced to the public, the sale of them in the Eastern and middle States has far exceeded Dr. Clickener's most sanguine expectations. During the past year, alone, no less than 10,000 gross of boxes have been sold in the State of New York, 6,000 in Pennsylvania, 4,000 in Maryland, 3,000 in New Jersey, 2,000 in Delaware, and 9,000 in the New England States, requiring the constant employment of 27 hands, exclusive of printers and engravers. In the same period, upwards of 200,000 copies of the "Family Doctor" have been ordered by agents in every section of the country. These facts must show, conclusively, that Dr. Clickener's Sugar Coated Pills, besides being the very best medicine in the world, are held in the highest estimation by the public.

We might extend this publication to an indefinite length, if we deemed it expedient to publish all testimonials we have received, not only from agents but individuals and families, who have experienced the benficial effects of Clickener's Sugar Coated Pills, but we deem it unnecessary. The most incontestible evidence of their unprecedented success, are the numberless Imitations and Counterfeits which have already appeared, notwithstanding the brief period they have been before the public. Even some of our staunchest pill makers have had the audacity to imitate the Capsule of Sugar, in order to disguise the ingredients of their vile compounds, and palm them off for the "real simon pure." Such paltry shifts cannot last long without exposing their hideous deformity. Truth and honesty must inevitably prevail over rascality and deception.

For sale in Pittsburgh by WM. JACKSON, at his Patent Medicine Warehouse, No. 89, Liberty street, head of Wood st., Pittsburgh. Price, 25c. per box.

Dr. Clickener's principal office is 81 Barclay street, New York.

☞Beware of an imitation article called Improved Sugar Coated Pills, purporting to be patented, as both the pills and the pretended patent are forgeries, got up by a miserable quack in New York, who, for the last four or five years, has made his living by counterfeiting popular medicines.

☞Remember, Dr. C. V. Clickener is the original inventor of Sugar Coated Pills, and that nothing of the sort was ever heard of until he introduced them in June, 1843. Purchasers should, therefore, always ask for Clickener's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills, and take no other, or they will be made the victims of a fraud. may 9
