Theatre.

Mrs. MOWATT closed her second engagement which, if possible, was more successful than the first, on Saturday evening, on which occasion her own play of Fashion was performed for the fourth time. Of the play itself it is unnecessary for us to speak; the fact of its having been performed four times in succession, to full houses, is the very best evidence of its popularity. Mrs. Mowatt has appeared in a great variety of character since her arrival, and a profound knowledge of human nature, a correct and thorough conception of character, and an easy, modest and sensative style, has characterised her every performance. Her complete triumph over all obstacles, her final standing as an actress of unbounded fame and merit, to which she is now hastening with unexampled rapidity, are circumstances just as certain as the fact that she is now far the superior of those who attempted to compete with her in the beginning.

There is one more character which Mrs. Mowatt has volunteered to perform before taking a final adieu of her numerous admirers in Pittsburgh. She appears to-night in the character of Mrs. HALLER, in the very affecting play of the STRANGER, which has been selected by Mr. FREDRICKS, the active and talented stage manager, for his benefit which takes place this evening. Judging from what we have already seen, we are led to believe that Mrs. Mowatt's Mrs Haller will be her best performance. The sorrowful and penitent wife, will, we are confident, be portrayed with feeling and effect. There is a fine moral in this piece, and it always produces a feeling of compassion and pity in the breast of every beholder. The injured husband we sincerely pity, and suffer with him; but the full, ample, and complete penitence of the fallen though penitent wife, is too much for human nature to bear, and in fact it is impossible for the to witness the play without becoming deeply interested in it.

We cannot close this notice of Mrs. MOWATT without congratulating her upon her triumphant success, and the numerous friends she has made since her arrival in Pittsburgh, and with a sincere wish that she may be as successful in her future efforts, as she has been since her commencement. We commend her to our brethren of the press wherever she may chance to appear.

CIRCUS.—Mr. S. P. Stickney, a great favorite with the people of this city, is to be with us again for a few days. The first performance will be given on Friday evening next, in front of the American Hotel. The very gentlemanly travelling agent of the company is now here making the necessary arrangements. Several very superior performers have been added to the company since it was here last season.

LECTURE ON ELECTRICITY.—We attended Dr. ADAMS' lecture on Electricity at the Odeon, on Saturday evening, and was highly pleased with the clear and lucid manner in which the Dr. delivered his discourse and explained the operations of the Magnetic Telegraph and Sub-Marine Battery; he did it with the aid of his apparatus in such a manner that none present could help but understand him. He lectures again on the same subject this evening To a great number of the young men of our city, we know of nothing that can be more interesting or instructive, and would advise all, who can possibly make it convenient, to attend. The price of admission is but trifling, in comparison to the benefit to be derived from such a lecture.

FOUND DEAD.—A man named RICHARD BARTON, was, on Saturday night, found dead on Hand street. The jury summoned by Coroner Hartz, decided that the deceased came to his death by a visitation of Divine Providence.

☞The several Divisions of the Sons of Temperance turned out yesterday to attend the funeral of a deceased brother, Mr. GRAY, of Allegheny city.

☞A valuable lot of fancy and staple Dry Goods will be sold at M'Kenna's, No. 114 Wood street, 3d door from 5th, this day at 10 o'clock, by order of Assignees.

The Prevailing Coughs and Colds.—The speediest, most popular, and only generally admitted positive cure for coughs, colds, influenza, difficulty of breathing, hoarseness, soreness of the chest, tickling in the throat, &c., is CLICKENER'S sugar-coated Vegetable Purgative Pills. They afford almost immediate relief; and the most eminent of the faculty recommend them exclusively in these diseases. To enhance their value, being coated with sugar, they have no tast whatever of medicine, so that a child can take them as easy as peppermint drops; and then again they produce not the slightest sensation of grip or nausea. In short they are so much superior to any other known medicine that a single trial will make any person a patron of them for life; and so assured is the proprietor of this, and so confident in their never-failing virtues, that he will immediately return the money paid for them in all cases where they do not give the most unlimited satisfaction.

Sold by Wm. Jackson, corner of Wood and Liberty streets, who is general Agent for Dr. Clickener's Pills in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

☞Beware of an imitation article called "Improved Sugar-Coated Pills" purporting to be patented, as both the pills and pretended patent are forgeries, got up by a miserable quack in New York, who, for the last four or five years, has made his living by counterfeiting popular medicines.

Mankind! at least that part of you
With scalp quite bald and bare,
You can have splendid—indeed, 'tis true!—
Most glorious silky hair.
If you have dandruf on the scalp;
If the hair turns white or gray,
To cure the scurf, and make it dark
You've but three Bits to pay.
If your head is bald, the hair weak or falling,
And you would have it live,
Why, try at once a bottle of Jone's
Hair Restorative.

☞Three shillings only for a trial bottle. Warrant it to possess the following qualities. It will force the hair to grow on any part where Nature intended hair to grow, stop it falling off, cure scurf or dandruf, and make light, red or grey hair grow dark. For dressing the hair soft and silky nothing exceeds this. It is indeed the most economical, yet superior article made for the hair. It is cheaper than the trash called hair oils, and it will keep the hair in order with one application, twice as long any other article.

Sold at JACKSON'S Patent Medicine Warehouse, 89 Liberty street, Pittsburgh head of Wood.

A Miracle—to cure Eruptions and beautify discolored Skin.—A valuable discovery in Chemistry has been made lately by M. Vesprini, an Italian Chemist, for curing all eruptions, and for changing the color of dark, yellow or discolored skin to a fine juvenile and youthful clearness. He has made this in the convenient form of a beautiful piece of Soap. For any old cases of eruption, such as scurvy, salt-rheum, erysipelas, &c. it cures wonderfully; also, freckles, tan, sunburn, morphew pimples, blotches, &c.

See that lady, what a fright;
Jones's splendid Lily White
Would give her skin a natural aue.
But you note, in spite of talk,
She will use the common chalk;
Thus you see her face is blue.

If that same lady, and many others, had used JONES's Lily White, her face and cheeks would have had (a natural,) life-like, alabaster white.

Important--the Oregon Question.

The Washington Union of the 12th of June, says:

"It is rumored over this city, though we have no official authority for the statement, and will not vouch for the truth of it, that the Senate of the United States has been engaged in closed doors for three days past on a message from the President of the United States, consulting them about the propriety of accepting terms proposed by Mr. Pakenham for the adjustment of the Oregon question. There are different rumors about the precise character of the proposition. It is said in the streets of Washington this evening, immediately after the Senate adjourned at 5 o'clock, that they advised the President to accept the proposition by a vote of 38 to 12. We cannot consent to keep these important rumors from our readers, although we have no official evidence for them, and have had no sort of communication upon this event with any member either of the Senate or of the administration."

The New Orleans papers of the 5th contain nothing later from Mexico or the Rio Grande. We, however, find some additional particulars of interest received by the Helen McLeod and steamer Alabama.

The New Orleans Delta of the 5th inst. says:

"From a gentleman who arrived in the steamer Alabama, from Matamoras, we learn that it is the least of Gen. Taylor's intentions to rest on his arms for any length of time. At a period not more distant than ten days he means to take up the line of march for Monterey and Nuevo Leon, the present camp of the enemy. He takes Camargo, Reinosa and Mier in his route. There are laurels yet to be plucked by our soldiers from the tree of Fame."

Mexican Flag.—Gen. Taylor, with a judgement that goes intuitively to its mark, in the conferring of a complimentary favor, has just forwarded, by Col. Winthrop, Aide-de-Camp to Governor Johnson, a Mexican standard—one of his trophies on the 8th and 9th ult. It was in token of his sense of what is due to Louisiana for her promptness in forwarding reinforcements at the late crisis. Louisianians know how to appreciate the gift.

A letter from Point Isabel in the N. O. Delta says:

"Capt. Thornton has been placed under arrest by order of Gen. Taylor, under charges of "disobedience of orders and neglect of duty in suffering his command to be surprised and captured by the enemy."

Gen Worth—A postcript to a letter in the Picayune, dated Point Isabel, 27th ult., announces the arrival that day of Gen. Worth. Gen. Smith with the advance of the volunteers were reaching Matamoras every day. The general impression in the camp appeared to be that nothing would be done before five or ten days, unless instructions should be received from Washington.

FROM TOBASCO.—Late and Important—Excitement against Americans.—The barque Texidor, Captain Major, from Tobasco, bound to Marseilles, came to an anchor off the South west Pass on Monday last. She sailed from that port on the 28th ult., having a passage of only four days to the Balize.

From Captain Major, who came up to the city to procure provisions, &c., the Delta learns that great excitement existed in Tobasco against the Americans. An order of embargo on American vessels was received from the general government, by express. The other came by express from the city of Mexico, and Captain Major, on receiving the earliest intimation of its arrival in the city, succeeded, by the assistance of several friends, in reaching his vessel.

The Governor having failed to prevent Captain Major's departure, ordered, it is said, the Mexican steamer Ventura, to go out and capture his vessel. The commander of the steamer, however, knew that the Texidor was furnished with one gun, and therefore considered it the better part of discretion not to be in too great a hurry firing up. The policy of this course was suggested to him by Capt. M. heaving to, off the bar, and cutting up his chain cables into small lengths for shot, loading his six-pounder, and intending, as he expressed it, to "breakfast in the Ventura's coffee mill," if she ventured out. The Governor placed about fifty soldiers in charge of the New Orleans schooner. Tobasco is represented as entirely destitute of fortifications or other defences, except the presence of about 100 Mexican soldiers.

Captain Major was not at his consignees' in the city, when the order came, and was guarded to his boat on the beach by about twenty of his friends, well armed, so that the soldiers were afraid to attempt making him prisoner.

The schooner ——— Captain Cox, of New Orleans, was seized, and the master detained in the capital. The Texidor left several English vessels in port, loading. No American man-of-war had as yet been seen off the port.

Foreign Periodicals.

REPUBLICATION OF The London Quarterly Review, the Edinburgh Review, the Foreign Quarterly Review, the Westminster Review, and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.—The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac-simile of the Edinburgh edition.

The wide-spread fame of these splendid Periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As literary organs, they stand far in advance of any works of a similar stamp now published, while the political complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candor and forbearance not often found in works of a party character.

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England—Whig, Tory. and Radical.—"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review," Whig; and the "Westminster," Radical. The "Foreign Quarterly" is purely literary, being devoted principally to criticisms on foreign Continental Works.

The prices of the RE-PRINTS are less than one-third of those of foreign copies, and while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the American over the English reader.

Pittsburgh Navigation and Fire Insurance Company.

OFFICE. NO. 21 MARKET STREET.

THE citizens of Pittsburgh continue to be offered an opportunity to effect insurance upon their property, by a Domestic institution located among themselves, based upon domestic capital, and conducted by directors, in whose prudence, integrity and good faith they can readily ascertain whether they may repose that undoubted security which should ever attend an assurance transaction.

To persons whose property has already been damaged or destroyed by fire or water, the advantage of personally adjusting the loss with an institution at home, will be strikingly evident. To those who suffered by the Great Fire, this particular corporation needs no recommendation. The prompt payment of the whole amount of its losses—NEARLY TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS—is to them a sufficient guarantee of future security.

It is the part of all prudent men, however fortunate, to anticipate calamity for the purpose of avoiding its effects. To such as have hitherto escaped, as well as those who have sustained loss, the facility of protection and indemnity, offered by this institution, will be the strongest inducement to avoid the reflections and regrets which must be experienced by those who suffer without hope of restitution.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.—The following extract of a letter is from a very respectable Mercantile House, dated

WASHINGTON, Rappahannock Co., Va., May 26, 1846.

DEAR SIR:—Our Mr. Jones has been in a very low state of health for more than a year; he has had the benefit of the best medical advice our country affords, and also visited your city during last summer, but found no relief. On the 15th day of April last we purchased half a dozen bottles of your TONIC VERMIFUGE, and half a dozen boxes of SANATIVE PILLS. Through carelessness in packing the articles in a dry goods box, one half the Vermifuge was broken. Mr. Jones commenced with the pills, and after taking a few doses, felt a decided improvement. The three bottles of Vermifuge which came safe to hand, brought from him, he thinks, not less than ONE THOUSAND WORMS, and perhaps many more. He is now in better health than he has been in for years, and we hope a few more bottles of your Vermifuge and Pills will effect a permanent cure.—All our physicians have entirely mistaken his case, Prof. Samuel Jackson, of your city, at the head. As to our responsibility, we have to refer you to Messrs. Haskip, Molen & Woodruff, Silk House, Market st., near Fourth, and Hickell, Hoskins & Co., corner of Fifth and Market sts. Mr. Jones is most anxious to get more of your Pills and Vermifuge as soon as possible. Respectfully, J. B. JONES & Co.

Those who rightly appreciate the luxury of an easy shave, and like to have it at a reasonable cost, should purchase and use this excellent compound.—We confidently and conscientiously recommend it to any and to all.—New York Atlas.

FERRE'S CREAM SAPONINE.—The present, certainly, is an "age of improvement." If any body dare gainsay this novel proposition, we have only to say to him, "go straightway to the vendors of Ferre's Cream Saponine for Shaving, get a box thereof, and use it according to the directions accompanying, and your skepticism will give way"—we are certain of it. In plain English, the article in question is a very superior quality of Shaving Soap.—Norwich Courier.

FERRE'S CREAM SAPONINE.—This is a new article, just introduced. We have tried it, and hence feel competent to pronounce judgment. We would say, therefore, that, though designed to facilitate the operation of shaving, it is no shave. We have never found anything of the kind that answered the purpose so delightfully.—Hampshire Gazette.
