

THE PITTSBURGH DAILY MORNING POST.

JOHN BIGGER, Editor. PITTSBURGH, MONDAY, JUNE 29, 1846. ALLEGHY COUNTY Democratic Ticket. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, WILLIAM D. POSTER, JR., OF BRANTFORD COUNTY.

CONGRESS, WILSON M. BLACK, of Pittsburgh. SENATE, RODY PATTERSON, of Allegheny. FEDERAL JUDGES, GEORGE R. RIDDLE, of Allegheny.

Mr. Hampton's Majority. The Gazette of Saturday contained an article in reply to the continuation of "Jervie," which appeared in the Post of Friday morning.

"We have previously stated that Mr. Hampton renounced Masonry many years ago, and that we had no recollection of his having been initiated as published in the Pittsburgh Times, in 1832.

Mr. Hampton is now a Mason? Does he know the editor of the Post? Has he received it usually or otherwise from any brother? Has he any evidence, in calling Mr. Hampton a Mason, to state the truth?

"We have, as remarked the other day, again and again asked the editor of the Gazette to give publicity to the evidence that Mr. Hampton renounced Masonry, but he has as yet neglected to do so, though he has again asserted to be a fact.
