SONG FOR THE PEOPLE. Arn-"I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls." I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls, With pimples and tan on my face;
And I thought that at parties, at soirces and balls,
I was termed a repulsive disgrace.
I had riches enough, but, alas! could not count
On possessing a healthy skin;
Yet I thought that a whisper said, you may surmo
Disfigurements, be they hateful as sin

I dreamt that suitors now sought my hand, But they all did repudiate my face; For they cried, Though her features are formed and bland,

The yellow neck and pimpled skin are disgrace, Then I thought that I cried in a voice void of hope, "Cure my pimples—make my skin white and fair; A voice answer'd, "Use a cake of the Jones's fame

Soar, And your mind will be free from de spair." Then I dreamt that I used it; O, that moment of bliss!
My skin changed from its yellowish hue;
My neck was made clear, and my face made to kiss, Though an angel might claim it his due; The pimples, the freckles, the blotches, the tan, Had decamped, and a voice by my side Said, indeed you will now be the glory of man, Ay, the virtue, the hope, and the pride.

old pate,

And who would not try to stop the same before it got too late,
But used all sorts of useless stuff at a very expension rate, Like a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c. This fine old man was loved by all, was reverenced

At length this good old man was told to go straight the perspiration.

Costiveness, cholic, indigestion, have long biffled Physician's skill. A medicine, however, has been discovered, and is now offered to the world, which is a quick and perfect cure for them, to which nearly every respectable practitiner in New York will bear willing testimony, as they have abandoned all other remedies for its use. The remedy speken of is Clickener's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills. A medicine which is as palateable as sugar plums, never gripes or nausates in the slighest degree, and yet is the most searching and positive purgative preparation ever discovered.
Such is the excellence of Clickener's Sigar Coated Vegetable Pills that the proprietor warrants a cure if they are taken according to directions, and binds himself to return the money if the purchaser is not fully pleased with them. The great excitement which their appearance has produced is not a false one, but is serected on the strong foundation of truth, and will never pass away; for so long as costiveness, cholic, and indigestion remain attend-

The Hughest Farity—This interesting family gives another Concert at the Odeon (this evening). Their selection of music is entirely new, and prepared expressly for the occasion. We hope to see the Odeon crowded, as the Hughest family are all excellent performers, and this will be a treat for the lovers of good music.
