CONCERT.—It will be seen from a card in another column of this paper, that DE MEYER gives his first concert at the Theatre this evening. From the celebrity of the performer, we have no doubt that the Theatre will be crowded at an early hour, with persons anxious to hear the fairy tones of the piano, under the skilful touch of this celebrated performer. To give our readers some idea of his performances, we publish the following extract from a criticism by Proctor, of the Louisville Journal. "The first concert of this great master of music, was given at the Appello Rooms on Tuesday evening, to one of the finest audiences ever gathered at a musical festival in this city, and the performances of De Meyer, surpassed the highest expectations that had been formed of them. He seemed to hold a world of music in each hand; and each hand seemed multiplied into fingers beyond computation, so rich, various, and overwhelming were the tides of melody and harmony, that he let loose on the minds of his auditory. His energy is amazing, but not more so than his delicacy, while his infinite variety is the most astonishing part of his performance. Monotony never comes near him, for we have no doubt he could have played twenty variations on the Carnival of Venice, in addition to those he gave, and that each would have differed in kind as well as in execution. As he swept along in his triumphant career, chasing before him what are impossibilities to all other men, we felt he was at times, approaching insurmountable difficulties, and that harmony and melody must be wrecked. But all such fears were groundless.

"But we consider his improvisations on Hail Columbia, Yankee Doodle, and the Star-Spangled Banner, as the crowning glories of the evening. He took hold of pieces, rendered common by unceasing repetition, which are whistled by every boy in the street, and "set" for every species of instrument as the "first lessons in tunes," he took these, and, by the magic wand of his genius, converted them into classical compositions that will last as long as fine music is appreciated. Although all the difficulties of the modern school are to be found in this masterpiece, the familiar fire side airs are present throughout, and flow in a full stream of melody, crowded with beauties. We know no which to admire most, the ingenuity of the composition, or the skill of the performer. Hail Columbia and the Satar Spangled banner were introduced by a crash of harmony only to be equalled by the roar of artillery, and is every way worthy of "the flag which has braved a thousand times the battle and the breeze."

PAINTING.—Yesterday we visited the studio of MR. JAS. MILLER, on Fifth street, and were shown a number of paintings executed by him, among which are some of considerable merit—one in particular pleased our taste, the portrait of a female. It is very seldom that we come across a painting of so much real merit in richness and force of the effects of light and shadow and reflection, especially the fine complexion, which harmonizes so well with the balance of the coloring. Mr. Miller is a young artist of considerable talent; his portraits are excellent both in likeness and painting, and we have no doubt with proper care and cultivation, and a due share of encouragement, he will attain an enviable position among those of his profession.

STAGE ARRANGEMENTS.—The owners of the Good Intent Fast Mail Line have bought out all the stock and coaches of the Good Intent Fast Line, and the two lines are now under the control of Messrs. FERGUS & W. R. MOOREHEAD. The stages leave as usual, and from the reputation of F. and W. R. Moorehead as Stage Agents always indefatigable in their exertions for the comfort and convenience of travellers, we feel warranted in asserting that the Good Intent Fast Mail Line will be one of the best in the U. States. The owners have placed on the route a number of splendid newstage and commodious Troy built coaches, which for comfort to the traveller cannot be surpassed. To persons travelling Eastward we would recommend Moorehead's line speedy, safe and comfortable.

MUSICAL ACADEMY.—The members of the Pittsburgh Musical Academy hold a meeting at their Hall, on the corner of 3d and Wood streets, this evening, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. Persons wishing to become members of the institution can do so this evening. See notice in another column.

MENAGERIE.—The Menagerie was crowded last evening. The performances of Herr Driesbach and the lions was truly astonishing. They remain in town but a few days, and we would advise those wishing to see a splendid collection of wild beasts, to avail themselves of this opportunity.

CIRCUS.—The Circus opened rich last night. The performances are the best we have witnessed for some time. The rain yesterday appeared to have had no effect with persons wishing to go, the large tent was crowded. John May, the clown kept the audience in a continued roar, the feats of Nathans and his pupil, Frank Brower, were excellent. Go early to-night and secure a seat.

STICKNEY'S CIRCUS.—This equestrian corps left yesterday on the steamer New England. They perform for a few days in Wheeling and then pass down the river. The worthy and enterprising manager, S. P. STICKNEY won golden opinions in this city. The company is an excellent one, and we freely commend them to the patronage of the citizens of Wheeling and other places where they may exhibit on their tour down the Ohio.

ARRIVAL.—Capt. MOURISON, and Lieut. WALLER, from the Rio Grande, arrived yesterday on the steamer Declaration.

Monongahela Navigation Co.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Monongahela Navigation Company, held on Wednesday the 1st July inst., JOHN B. BUTLER, Esq., resigned his office as President of said Company, and GEN. J. K. MOORHEAD, was duly elected in his place.

NEGOTIATION WITH MEXICO.

The following, from the Washington correspondent of the N. York Journal of Commerce, strikes us as sensible. It is more than probable that the disposition here accorded to the President and the administration is just:

On Monday, Mr. M'Duffie, a chairman of the Committee of Foreign Affairs of the Senate, called upon the President, and asked him whether he intended that this Mexican war should be a war of conquest, or whether his purpose was merely to bring Mexico to honorable and fair terms of peace. The President replied that the latter was his object. Mr. M'Duffie thereupon assured the President that he should have his hearty support in all measures directed to the attainment of the latter object.

Pittsburgh Navigation and Fire Insurance Company.

OFFICE. NO. 21 MARKET STREET.

THE citizens of Pittsburgh continue to be offered an opportunity to effect insurance upon their property, by a Domestic institution located among themselves, based upon domestic capital, and conducted by directors, in whose prudence, integrity and good faith they can readily ascertain whether they may repose that undoubted security which should ever attend an assurance transaction.

To persons whose property has already been damaged or destroyed by fire or water, the advantage of personally adjusting the loss with an institution at HOME, will be strikingly evident. To those who subscribed by the Great Fire, this particular corporation needs no recommendation. The prompt payment of the whole amount of its losses—NEARLY TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS—is to them a sufficient guarantee of future security.

It is the part of all prudent men, however fortunate, to anticipate calamity for the purpose of avoiding its effects. To such as have hitherto escaped, as well as to those who have sustained from the facility of protection and indemnity, offered by this institution, will be the strongest inducement to avoid the reflections and regrets which must be experienced by those who suffer without hope of restitution.

M. ALLEN, President.
ROB'T FINNEY, Secretary. feb10-d6m

BOWEL OR SUMMER COMPLAINT.—We confidently recommend and could refer to hundreds of our citizens who have used as a certain, safe and effectual remedy for Dysentry, Diarhoea, or Looseness, Cholera Morbus, SUMMER COMPLAINT, Colic, Griping Pains, Sour Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Heartburn, &c.

This is one of the most efficient, pleasant, and safe compositions ever offered to the public for the cure of the various derangements of the STOMACH and BOWELS, and the only article worthy of the least confidence for curing CHOLERA INFANTUM or SUMMER COMPLAINT; and in all the above diseases it really acts like a charm.

CERTIFICATE
From the Rev. Asa Shinn, of the Protestant Methodist Church.

The undersigned having been afflicted during the past winter with a disease in the stomach, sometimes producing severe pain in the stomach for ten or twelve hours without intermission, and having tried various remedies with little effect, was furnished with a bottle of Dr. JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM. This he used according to the directions, and found invariably that this medicine caused the pain to abate in three or four minutes, and in fifteen or twenty minutes every uneasy sensation was entirely quieted. The medicine was afterwards used whenever indications of the approach of pain were perceived, and the pain was thereby prevented. He continued to use the medicine every evening, and sometimes in the morning, and in a few weeks health was so far restored, that the sufferer was relieved from a large amount of oppressive pain. From experience, therefore, he can confidently recommend Dr. D. Jayne's Carminative Balsam, as a salutary medicine for diseases of the stomach and bowels. A. SHINN,
Allegheny city, July 16th, 1843.

Box 501

jy1-12&w1t C. M'KIBBIN, Postmaster.

Raymond and Waring's
GRAND ZOOLOGICAL EXHIBITION.

THIS MAMMOTH MANAGERIE of all that is beautiful and wild in animated nature, is more extensive than any ever collected in America, it requiring the aid of SIXTY MEN AND NINETY HORSES in their care and transportation.

Will be exhibited at Pittsburgh on WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY, JULY 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th, for 4 days only, under their Enormous Pavillion, to be exhibited in the Mansion House Yard, Liberty street. The different Exhibitions will take place as follows:

Wednesday July 1st, from 1 to 4 and 7 to 10 P. M.;
Thursday and Friday, July 2d and 3d, from 9 to 12 A. M., 1 to 4 and 7 to 10 P. M.; Saturday, July 4th, there will be four Exhibitions—at 9, A. M., 1, 3 and 7 P. M.

The Wild Tenants of the forest, from the huge and docile elephant, the majestic Lion of unequaled African, the fierce tiger of the Bengal jungles the beautiful leopard, the playful but ferocious bear, the gentle gazelle, the useful and patient camel, the curiously striped zebra, the grave rushing hyena, the stealthy panther, the savage wolf, the cunning fox, down through all the lesser grades, are here beheld with safety, true to their nature at times, but perfectly subject to the control of man the lord of creation.

Fowls of the air and Reptiles, the most beautiful, rare, various and dangerous of their species are also comprised in this valuable combination; description is powerless, and space too limited to admit it. Suffice it to say, that the proprietors are of the oldest standing and highest celebrity, and have devoted years of toil and expense to the recent collection, which is pronounced in Europe and America, perfectly unparalleled.

RAYMOND & WARING would state that at tremendous expense they have retained the services of the celebrated, brave and powerful.

who is a native of Germany, and stands at the head of all tamers of wild beasts. He has been styled by critics the lion tamer! as he has exposed his life before this in taming the largest and most terrible lion ever caught. This lion is at present in the possession of Raymond & Waring, and has repeatedly saved the life of the intrepid Driesbach when exercising tigers, leopards and other beasts in the performing cages.

Driesbach is the wonder of the world as a controller of beasts; his pet tiger's feats, together with those of the lions and leopards have been beheld by millions. Driesbach actually drives lions harnessed in his car, thus showing the supreme divinity of man above the nature of the brutes.

The moral and useful purposes which an exhibition like this can serve, are perceived by all, and acknowledged by all moralists and thinking minds. This exhibition serves to entertain and instruct every one in the wondrous works of the Supreme Being, and is particularly impressive on the minds of youth. The whole menagerie is entirely unexceptionable.

RAYMOND & WARING'S splendid and formidable Zoological Caravan will enter town on Wednesday morning, July 1st, from Wilkinsburgh, and will make a Grand Procession through Penn st. to Water, up Water to Wood, up Wood to Liberty, and up Liberty to the place of exhibition preceded by the best band in the country drawn by TWO TREMENDOUS ELEPHANTS IN HARNESS.
