THEATRE.—We were glad to see so large and fashionable an audience at the Theatre on Monday evening. Mr. MURDOCH's personation of Hamlet was the most powerful and masterly piece of acting we have witnessed for some time, he carried the feeling of the audience with him from first to last. At the close of the play Mr. M. was called out, and returned his thanks to the audience for their attention, in a few neat and brief remarks.

This evening he appears in the character of Piere, in the Tragedy of "Venice Preserved," and Dick Dashall in the farce of "My Aunt," in both of which characters he is excellent.

[COMMUNICATED.]

The anniversary of our national Independence was celebrated by the Brotherhood of St. Joseph's, at the Orphan Asylum, on Coal Lane. The house having been vacated for the occasion and the grounds handsomely decorated for the purpose, a table was placed under the trees and beautifully ornamented by the young ladies, where they disposed of such articles as were found acceptable during the heat of the day. A platform erected further back in the grounds was decorated with green, and from the top floated the stripes and stars of our country—as we looked around the garden we thought of those beautiful lines by Campbell, so well known but still so expressive.

The world was sad, the garden was a wild,
And man, the hermit, sighed till woman smiled.

The Declaration of Independence having been read, an appropriate oration was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Lean, which throughout breathed a pure spirit of patriotism, creditable alike to the head and heart of its author; he concluded with an eloquent allusion to the flag of the Union, and exclaimed in the beautiful language of the poet—

"Forever float that standard sheet!
Where lives the foe but falls before us?
With freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And freedom's banner floating o'er us?"

At 1 o'clock the company sat down to a sumptuous dinner prepared by the Ladies, and set out in the School Room attached to the Asylum.—The room was handsomely decorated and the dinner table beautifully ornamented. Too much credit cannot be given to the ladies for their great exertions in the preparation of the dinner, and we were at a loss to decide between the taste of the young ladies who had given so much relief to the table in the garden, or that of the married ladies who so substantially provided for their guests in the School Room. The afternoon was spent in gaiety and amusement, and after taking tea, the company dispersed, well satisfied with the day's entertainment, and with the proud satisfaction of knowing that while enjoying themselves they were contributing towards the maintenance of the Orphan and the Fatherless.

To Mothers.—The difficulty which every mother experiences in Administering medicine to infants, is entirely obviated by Dr. Clicker's preparation, called the Sugar-Coated Vegetable Purgative Pill. The pill is encrusted with fine white sugar, so that it resembles and tastes like a sugar plum, which no child ever yet refused to swallow. For worms this is an assured remedy, and it has been used with excellent effect in cases of teething. The matron of the Farm School writes to Dr. Clicker, that she has used for some time, his Sugar-coated Pill in both these complaints, and always with entire success.

Sold by Wm. Jackson, corner of Wood and Liberty streets, who is generll Agent for Dr. Clicker's Pills in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

AIR—"The fine old English Gentleman."

I'll sing you a prime new Yankee song, made in a Yankee State,
Of a fine old Yankee gentleman, who'd got a bald old pate,
And who would not try to stop the same before it got too late,
But used all sorts of useless stuff at a very expensive rate,
Like a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

This fine old man was loved by all, was reverenced by the fairy,
But alas! he could not boast of wearing, his own natural hairy,
But was forced to wear a nasty wig, at which all men did stare,
For his features all were noble, and his mind was good, not rare.
In a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

At length this good old man was told to go straight off and give,
Three shillings for a bottle of JONES' HAIR RESTORATIVE,
Which, though the hair had long been dead, 'twould force again to live,
And grow dark, soft, and beautiful, like a plant or an olive,
On this fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

He used but two small bottles, and his hair grew dark and long,
No dandruff filled the scalp, for the roots grew healthy, ay, and strong,
And he says at last he's found the right, though he's often tried the wrong,
Of a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

SONG FOR THE PEOPLE.

AIR—"I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls."

I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls,
With pimples and tan on my face;
And I thought that at parties, at soirees and balls,
I was termed a repulsive disgrace.
I had riches enough, but, alas! could not count
On possessing a healthy skin;
Yet I thought that a whisper said, you may surmount
Disfigurements, be they hateful as sin.

dreamt that suitors now sought my hand,
But they all did repudiate my face;
For they cried, Though her features are formed mild and bland,
The yellow neck and pimpled skin are disgrace,
Then I thought that I cried in a voice void of hope,
"Cure my pimples—make my skin white and fair;"
A voice answer'd, "Use a cake of the JONES's famed SOAP,
And your mind will be free from despair."

Then I dreamt that I used it; O, that moment of bliss!
My skin changed from its yellowish hue;
My neck was made clear, and my face made to kiss,
Though an angel might claim it his due;
The pimples, the freckles, the blotches, the tan,
Had decamped, and a voice by my side
Said, indeed you will now be the glory of man,
Ay, the virtue, the hope, and the pride.

NO CURE, NO PAY—SELLERS' LIVER PILLS
These celebrated pills claim public confidence, not only on account of what the proprietor may say about them, but on account of the good resulting from their use. Read the following statement from a citizen of Birmingham:—

Birmingham, June 24th 1846.

Mr. R. E. Sellers: I take this opportunity of testifying in favor of your invaluable medicine. About two years ago I was taken down with severe inflamation of the liver; and was so reduced by night sweats and other effects of this dreadful disease that my life was despaired of. After other means had failed, I was advised by my Physician to try your Liver Pills; and I must say that after taking one box and a half I have been restored to reasonable health, which I enjoy at this time. I therefore take pleasure in recommending them to others afflicted with disease of the liver.
Yours respectfully,
JOHN GIVENER.

These Pills stand unequalled by any medicine known for the cure of Liver Complaint, and may be had of the proprietor, R. E. Sellers, 57 Wood street, and of H. P. Schwartz and J. Mitchell, Allegeny City.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

By Magnetic Telegraph. For the Baltimore Sun.

ARRIVAL OF THE

STEAM SHIP

BRITANNIA!

FIFTEEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Reception of the Victories of General Taylor. Feeling relative thereto in England and France. Death of the Pope of Rome. Passage of the Corn Bill. Threatened Interference of France and England in favor of Mexico. Decline in the Cotton Market. Decline in Wheat, Flour, &c.

The steamship Britannia arrived at Boston on Saturday morning, and was received in Philadelphia by express, from whence it was communicated to the Baltimore Sun by Magnetic Telegraph, some twenty-four hours in advance of the mail.

The news is of considerable importance, and very interesting, particularly so far as relates to the reception of the news of the victories of Gen. Taylor on the Rio Grande.

The corn bill has triumphed in the committee of the whole in the House of Lords by a majority of thirty-three. Consequently all fears as to its final passage are at an end, and a rich market for our superabundent crops of breadstuffs may now be confidently anticipated.

There has been a decline of one-eighth pence in the Cotton market, though the demand continued steady.

In England and Ireland the wheat and potatoes as well as other crops, have a fine and prosperous appearance, and the prospect of a plentiful harvest was considered good on the 19th ult., when the Britannia sailed. It seems, therefore, that we have monopolized all the rain in this direction, unless the storm clouds have paid them a later visit.

Sir Robert Peel's retirement is more confidently spoken of than by former arrivals—there is, however, nothing positive known yet with regard to his intentions in this respect. It is based on the supposition, that on the completion of his great measures he would retire from active life.

The war between the United States and Mexico engrosses public attention. The victories of the Americans on the Rio Grande has changed public feeling both in England and France from sympathy for the Mexicans to contempt. This change of opinion, however, is as unjust to the Mexicans as the former feeling was to the Americans. The Mexicans deserve much credit for their gallant stand, and it was only the superior tact and energy of Gen. Taylor and his brave little army that overthrew them.

Mr. Guizott's organ is still pointing out the necessity and policy of France and England interfering by a joint action of some kind to protect Mexico from what it terms the rapacious and tyrannical conduct of the United States in seizing on the territory of a weak and unfortunate nation.—The government organ, however, does not touch on the subject, and the probability is that the organ of Mr. Guizot is used as a feeler to ascertain the views of the people in reference to such a movement.

In Compte, the attempted assassin of Louis Phillippe, King of the French, has been executed. This announcement will be received with universal surprise, as this unfortunate man has heretofore been uniformly represented as laboring under a singular delusion, nearly approaching to insanity.

Death of the Pope of Rome.—His Holiness, the Pope of Rome is dead having expired suddenly on the 1st of June. Cardinal Franzoni, it is said, is the person most likely to succeed him.

New Steamships.—Three or four steamships for weekly communication between the United States and Great Britain, are constructing by the same builders and engineers who built the Cambria, and steamships of the British and North American line. The Messrs. Cunard are to have the contract.

Dr. Ellis, a professor of Hydropathy, has been held to bail for manslaughter for causing the death of a patient by administering the cold water system.

The heat was greater in Paris the week before the 15th of June than for some years. The thermometer marked, in the shade, 84° of Fahrenheit. The English papers speak of the month of June being the hottest experienced in that country for sixteen years. The number of deaths recorded from being struck by the sun is very numerous.

Wheat has declined in the Liverpool Corn Market, between the 15th of May and the 15th of June, from 2*s.* to 2*s.* 10*d.* per quarter. Flour is also lower.

Apprehensions were entertained in Holland of a failure of the rye and potatoe crop.

IMPORTANT FROM TAMPICO.

Battle between U. S. sloop of war St. Mary's and Mexican Gun Boat.

THE MEXICAN PORT SILENCED.

We give on Saturday the substance of the following letter from the Norfolk Herald, describing an attack made on the Mexican Fort and gun boats at Tampico, by the U. S. sloop of war St. Mary's expressing our opinion, from the fact of later date, having been received from on board this vessel, in which no allusion was made to these skirmishes that the details were probably unfounded. We have since, however, been shown a letter from an officer on board giving a daily diary of events up to the 17th, in which these skirmishes are all recorded, and fully substantiate the authenticity of the important facts contained in the following letters, the second of which came to hand yesterday morning in the Norfolk Herald of Saturday.

U. S. SHIP ST. MARY's,
Off Tampico, June 13, 1846.

The war grows apace. On the 8th inst., we discovered the enemy erecting another fort on the North side of the entrance to the river, and at one o'clock P. M., we got the ship under weigh under topsails, stood in, and when within a mile of the fort, let go a broadside, the latter three in number, and tonning about one hundred, opened a fire upon the boat.—Being on a lee shore and in shoal water, we were not able to fire more than eight shot, before it came necessary to claw off, which we did, but at three o'clock returned and continued the firing until we had fired 70 shot, and 29 round solid shot. In the last rounds, the enemy returned our fire, with about ten shots from 18 pound guns, four of which passed near us, two fell directly under our fore feet," one passed between the fore and main topmast, and one over the fore foot, the others fell at a distance.

The first shell which burst over the fort, ejected every soldier from the neighborhood, the whole of them taken immediately to the wood. One of our shells passed between one of the schooners masts, and exploded beyond her, a fragment having struck the bowsprit and bulwarks, tearing both considerably, as we have learned since the fight. One corner of the eastern house was knocked down—a house on the north side of the river was fired by the explosion of a shell; and a soldier at the Fort on guard, by the bursting of another shell, exchanged his musket for vacancy, it having been shattered, without, I believe, injuring his valuable person. Having driven the party from their embryo fort, we returned to our anchorage at half past three.

We were not satisfied, however, with this engagement, for yesterday we projected a plan for cutting out the gunboats, and accordingly at dusk hoisted out all boats, arrived there, the launch bearing a nine pounder in the bows, and at 10½ o'clock, P. M., got under weigh and brought the ship near the shore, about one and a half miles off. It takes a longer time to describe the minutia of this affair than I can devote to it now. We had desired to make the attack before the moon rose, but could not. At eleven o'clock she was lifting her head above the horizon when our five boats left the ship, everything having been previously arranged by our gallant Captain. Mind you, we not only had the difficulty of capturing three heavy gunboats with thirty or more men in each, and to quell a Fort, of which we had to pass within fifty yards, but there was a dangerous bar to be crossed, but first to be found. We pulled into the shore with muffled oars, literally feeling our way, for at one time we would be quite in the breakers, and then too far seaward, with a strong tide beneath and a bright moon above us, everything seeming to conspire against our daring expedition.

In seeking our way to the mouth of the river, we were obliged to pass near the shore for a distance of 300 yards, and the noise consequent upon the difficulty of finding our way through a passage of which we knew nothing, betrayed us to the sentinels along the shore, who rapidly communicated with the encampments, and it conveyed intelligence to the gun boats, so that unknown to us, our foe was watching our every movement. However, at about 1, A. M. we had discovered the narrow entrance to the mouth of the river, and were pulling in, when, within two hundred yards of the Fort, near where we had to pass, much to our surprise, as you may imagine, bang! went a dozen muskets, and the way the balls whizzed about our ears. We laid on our oars, and in five minutes after the firing of muskets commenced, the guns in the launch were trained and "let drive." A gun rather heavier from one of the gun boats succeeded to this; the shot passed clear of us, and the gun in the launch was loaded and fired again, when the firing ashore ceased. There were also fired from the launch a few carbines.

Extract of a letter from the sloop of war St. Mary's dated.

As circumstances, beyond control, prevented us from reaching the three gun boats (spoken of in my letter of the 13th instant,) moored in Tampico river, and which we had desired to cut out, our Captain determined to greet the enemy at long shot from the ship, and accordingly at 7 A. M. we ran out a kedge on the quarter, and brought our guns to bear on the gun-boats, and fort under which they were anchored. The boats anchored in a line abreast across the river, with springs on their cables anticipating an attack from us. As soon as we opened our broadside upon them they returned the fire briskly; but two of our Paixhan shells, which exploded over the fort, silenced it, the boats still maintaining the action—they fired I suppose about 16 shot, all of which proved harmless. Three passed over our hammock nettings, falling half a cable's length beyond us—two others fell within a few yards of the side presented to the enemy—one fell near a cutter moored estern and baptized her crew with its spray; the rest all fell short or wide of their mark.

In return for these civilities we presented them with 19 Paixhan shells and 14solid shot. The bar intervening between us and the fort and the gun boats, rendered it impossible for us to choose our distance; we were therefore reluctantly compelled to engage them at long shot. Discovering that we did not do the execution which we desired, the captain thought the child's play, caused the useless waste of powder and ball, and there fore gave orders at 8, A. M. to cease firing, when we weighed the stream and hedge and stood out to our old anchorage.

To one ignorant of gunnery it might be matter of surprise that the shot from these boats reached us, while our guns, of heavier calibre, dis not carry much farther; but we know, that a well-served 18 pounder is a long-legged customer, and will carry quite as far as a medium 32. It is said that these gun-boats have received orders to sink at their moorings rather than retreat or surrender, and that their officers have been threatened with death should they disobey. Doubtless the penalty will be inflicted, for Mexico sanctions this summar method of dealing with her vanquished sons.—Their commander is a resolute Scotchman, the former captain of African slavers. He is a vigilant fellow, and will probably not be caught napping. Could we have succeeded in entering the river, I believe that, even with our small force, we would have captured the gun boats and silenced the forts by turning their guns upon it.

Our order of battle was as follows: the launch and 2d cutter were to board the Southern vessel; the 1st, 3d and 4th cutters, were to carry the middle one, and down to take the third or northern boat. For silencing the artillery at the fort, we had tolled and stowed in our cutters, cylinders to suit the calibre of the guns of the gun boats, with which we intended to play on the Fort. I believe that all our measures were very judiciously taken, but the obscurity of night, the narrowness of entrance to the river, and our ignorance of its precise position rendered them abortive. We of course, deeply regret the failure of this expedition; but as it arose from a combination of accidents, not always available in warfare, and particularly liable to occur in night attacks, it behoves us to submit to it with a good grace, and to hope for a more successful issue to our next expedition. We may yet have a chance to "show them the ropes," and be assured we shall not be slow to embrace it.

THIS MAMMOTH MANAGERIE of all that is beautiful and wild in animated nature, is more extensive than any ever collected in America, it requiring the aid of SIXTY MEN AND NINETY HORSES in their care and transportation.

Will be exhibited at Pittsburgh on WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY, JULY 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th, for 4 days only, under their Enormous Pavillion, to be exhibited in the Mansion House Yard, Liberty street. The different Exhibitions will take place as follows:

Wednesday July 1st, from 1 to 4 and 7 to 10 P. M.; Thursday and Friday, July 2d and 3d, from 9 to 12, A. M., 1 to 4 and 7 to 10 P. M.; Saturday, July 4th, there will be four Exhibitions—at 9, A. M., 1, 3 and 7 P. M.

The Wild Tenants of the forest, from the huge and docile elephant, the majestic Lion of unexplored Africa, the fierce tiger of the Bengal jungles the beautiful leopard, the playful but ferocious bear, the graceful gazelle, the useful and patient camel, the curiously striped zebra, the grave robbing hyena, the stealthy panther, the savage wolf, the cunning fox, down through all the lesser grades, are here behold with safety, true to their nature at times, but perfectly subject to the control of man the lord of creation.

Fowls of the air and Reptiles, the most beautiful, rare, various and dangerous of their species are also comprised in this valuable combination; description is powerless, and space too limited to admit it. Suffice it to say, that the proprietors are of the oldest standing and highest celebrity, and have devoted years of toil and expense for the recent collection, which is pronounced in Europe and America, perfectly unparallelled.

RAYMOND & WARING would state that at tremendous expense they have retained the services of the celebrated, brave and powerful who is a native of Germany, and stands at the head of all tamers of wild beasts. He has been styled by critics the lion tamer! as he has exposed his life before this to taming the largest and most terrible lion ever caught. This lion is at present in the possession of Raymond & Waring, and has repeatedly saved the life of the intrepid Driesbach when exercising tigers, leopards and other beasts in the performing cage.

Driesbach is the wonder of the world as a controller of beasts; his pet tigers fight, together with those of the lions and leopards have been beheld by millions. Driesbach actually drives lions harnessed in his car, thus showing the supreme divinity of man above the nature of the brutes.

The moral and useful purposes which an exhibition like this can serve, are perceived by all, and acknowledged by all moralists and thinking minds. This exhibition serves to entertain and instruct every one in the wondrous works of the Supreme Being, and is particularly impressive on the minds of youth. The whole menagerie is entirely unexceptionable.

RAYMOND & WARING'S splendid and formidable Zoological Caravan will enter town on Wednesday morning, July 1st., from Wilkinsburgh, and will make a Grand Procession through Penn st. to Water, up Water to Wood, up Wood to Liberty, and up Liberty to the place of exhibition preceded by the best band in the country drawn by TWO TREMENDOUS ELEPHANTS IN HARNESS.

ADMISSION 25 cents. Children under 10 years of age half price.

BOWEL OR SUMMER COMPLAINT.—We confidently recommend and could refer to hundreds of our citizens who have used as a certain, safe and effectual remedy for Dysentry, Diarhœa, or Looseness, Cholera Morbus, SUMMER COMPLAINT, Colic, Griping Pains, Sour Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Heartburn, &c.

JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM,

This is one of the most efficient, pleasant, and safe compositions ever offered to the public for the cure of the various derangements of the stomach and bowels, and the only article worthy of the implicit confidence for curing CHOLERA INFANTUM or SUMMER COMPLAINT; and in all the above diseases it really acts like a charm.

CERTIFICATE.

From the Rev. Asa Shinn, of the Protestant Methodist Church.

The undersigned having been afflicted during the past winter with a disease in the stomach, sometimes producing severe pain in the stomach for ten or twelve hours without intermission, and having tried various remedies with little effect, was furnished with a bottle of Dr. JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM. This he used according to the directions, and found invariably that this medicine caused the pain to abate in three or four minutes, and in fifteen or twenty minutes every uneasy sensation was entirely quieted. The medicine was afterwards used whenever indications of the approach of pain were perceived, and the pain was thereby prevented. He continued to use the medicine every evening, and sometimes in the morning, and in a few weeks health was so far restored, that the sufferer was relieved from a large amount of oppressive pain. From experience, therefore, he can confidently recommend Dr. D. Jayne's Carminative Balsam, as a salutary medicine for diseases of the stomach and bowels.

Pittsburgh Navigation and Fire Insurance Company.

OFFICE. NO. 21 MARKET STREET.

THE citizens of Pittsburgh continue to be offered an opportunity to effect insurance upon their property, by a Domestic institution located among themselves, based upon domestic capital, and conducted by directors, in whose prudence, integrity and good faith they can readily ascertain whether they may repose that undoubted security which should ever attend an assurance transaction.

To persons whose property has already been damaged or destroyed by fire or water, the advantage of personally adjusting the loss with an institution at home, will be strikingly evident. To those who suffered by the Great Fire, this particular corporation needs no recommendation. The prompt payment of the whole amount of its losses—within two hundred DOLLARS—is to them a sufficient guarantee of future security.

It is the part of all prudent men, however fortunate, to anticipate calamity for the purpose of avoiding its effects. To such as have hitherto escaped, as well as to those who have sustained loss, the facility of protection and indemnity, offered by this institution, will be the strongest inducement to avoid the reflections and regrets which must be experienced by those who suffer without hope of restitution.
