Ark—"The fine old English Gentleman."

I'll sing you a prime new Yankee song, made in a Yankee State;
Of a fine old Yankee gentleman, who'd got a bald old pate,
And who would not try to stop the same before it got too late.

But used all sorts of useless stuff at a very expensive rate,
Like a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

This fine old man was loved by all, was reverenced by the fair,
But alas! he could not boast of wearing, his own antiral faif. natural fidir, But was forced to wear a nasty wig, at which all men did stare,
For his features all were noble, and his mind was good, not tare:

UADRILLES from Leonard;
Operatic Gens,
Kind, kind and gentle is she; good, not fare:
In a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c. At length this good old man was told to go straight off and give;

THE regular mail and pasenger steam-arogular packet between Pittsburgh and Cincin-nati, leaving this port every Monday at 6 o'clock, P. M. Returning she will leave Cincinnati every phia.—Dear Sir—I have this day had an interview with the gentleman of whom I made mention to you as having taken your Expectorant with such decided effect. He is a respectable farmer, living a few miles them here. I was so much interested in a detailed account he gave me of his cough and cure that I as having a sear a spectable farmer, living a few miles from hero. I was so much interested in a detailed a account he gave me of his cough and cure; that I ombrace the first liesure moment to communicate it to you, and if the cure is as radical as it appears to be, it is the most remarkable one I have ever known. For 32 years (after having the measies) he has been suffering with a cough of the most distressing kind, getting worse as he advanced in years; (he is now 55.) Frequent terms of coughing and difficulty of breathing, lasting from an hour to an hear and a malf, would come upon him, with such severity as to exhaust him, with strangling until his eyes became bloodshot. He had dispaired of boing cured, having tried physiciana and a thousand things without relief. For nine weeks immediately previous to his taking the Expectorant, he had not been able to go to his barn, although there was the most urgent necessity for him to do so.

During the nine weeks he was under the care of the care of the care of the care of the court of his cough and cure; that I have a detailed to you, and if the cure is as radical as it appears to be, it is the most remarkable one I have ever known.
