SONG FOR THE PEOPLE.

On possessing a healthy skin; Yet I thought that a whisper said, you may so nts, be they hateful as sin. dreamt that suitors now sought my hand,

But they all did repudiate my face;
For they cried, Though her features are formed mil and bland,
The yellow neck and pimpled skin are disgrace,
Then I thought that I cried in a voice void of hope,
"Cure my pimples—make my skin white and fair;"
A voice answer'd, "Use a cake of the Jones's famed Soap, And your mind will be free from despair."

Then I dreamt that I used it; O, that moment of bliss My skin changed from its yellowish hue; 1 yneck was made clear, and my face made to kis: Though an angel might claim it his due;
The pimples, the freckles, the blotches, the tan,
Had decamped, and a voice by my side d, indeed you will now be the glory of man Ay, the virtue, the hope, and the pride.
