Transportation Lines.

Reliance Portable Boat Line.

1846.

FOR transporting good between Pittsburgh and the Eastern cities without transhipping. This old established line (being the oldest portable boat line on the canal) is now prepared to receive produce and merchandize for shipping either East or West. The boats by this line are commanded by skilful, experienced and sober captains, and provided with good crews. Boats and cargoes are transferred from and to canal and railroad, saving all removal and separation of goods. Trips made in as short time, and goods carried on as fair terms as any other line.

Thankful for, and respectfully soliciting a continuance of the very liberal and growing patronage heretofore bestowed upon this line, we with confidence assure those merchants disposed to favor us, that their business shall be done to their entire satisfaction. Goods carried by us, consigned to either of our houses, will be shipped to their destination free of charge for shipping, storage or advance of charges. As we hold no interest in steamboat stock, merchants may depend upon their goods always being forwarded without delay, upon good boats and at the lowest rates of freight.

Produce consigned to our house at Philadelphia for sale, will be sold on liberal terms, and advances made either at Pittsburgh or Philadelphia.

Independent Portable Boat Line.

1846.

FOR the transportation of produce and merchandize to and from Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Philadelphia; no transhipment. The subscribers, agents for a number of the best portable boats, forming a regular daily line between Pittsburgh and the Eastern cities, will be fully prepared on the opening of navigation to ship a large amount of produce and merchandize with despatch and on accommodating terms.

The great success which has characterised this mode of transportation on the Penn'a canals and railroads during the last few years, notwithstanding the opposition of long established companies, and is a pretty sure indication of its superiority over the old plan of transhipping at the the different terminus of canals and railroads.

We therefore ask for the Independent Portable Boat Line a liberal share of patronage.

Produce or merchandize consigned to us for shipment will be forwarded immediately on arrival, free of any charge for commission, storage or insurance. Bills of lading transmitted, and all instructions promptly attended to. MEARS, RAYNOR & Co.,

Pittsburgh Portable Boat Line.

FOR the transportation of freight between Pittsburgh and the Atlantic cities, via Pennsylvania Improvements and Baltimore and Susquehanna railroad.

The Proprietors of this old established line, having completed their arrangements, are prepared to forward goods to and from the East (on the opening of the canal navigation), on as reasonable terms as any other responsible line, and are determined that no care or attention on their part shall be wanting to secure a continuance of that patronage so liberally bestowed upon them for several years past.

The decided success of the portable boat system, so manifest in the regularity and despatch experienced in the delivery of goods, the absence of all risk of delay, breakage or other damage, incident to the old system, where goods have to be hurriedly transhipped three times on the way, and the merchandize under which produce has been avowedly delivered by them, has induced the proprietors to increase their stock considerably this season. Their extensive warehouses at each point, (unequalled by any other line), affords them facilities to conduct their business with despatch; and to shippers the convenience of free storage, if required, until their arrangements are completed—while their long experience in the carrying trade, it is presumed, will be sufficient guarantee to their patrons and the public that they will successfully exert themselves to give general satisfaction.

Produce received forwarded, steamboat charges paid, and bills lading transmitted free of charge, commission, advancing or storage, and all communications to the following agents promptly attended to:

CONDUCTED on strict Sabbath-keeping principles, though not claiming to be the only line that is so conducted. The proprietors of this old established line have put their stock in the most complete order and are thoroughly prepared to forward produce and merchandize to and from the Eastern cities on the opening of navigation.

We trust that our long experience in the carrying business, and zealous attention to the interests of customers, will secure to us a continuance and increase of the patronage heretofore bestowed on 'Bingham's Line."

Our arrangements will enable us to carry freight with the utmost despatch; and our prices shall always be as low as the lowest charged by other responsible lines.

Produce and merchandize will be received and forwarded east and west without any charge for advertising, storage or commission.

Bills of lading forwarded, and every direction promptly attended to.

Monongahela Route.

1846.

VIA BROWNSVILLE, TO BALTIMORE AND PHILADELHIA, only 73 miles staging. The splendid fast running steamers, Consul, and Louis M'Lane have commenced making their regular trips between Pittsburgh and Brownsville.

The morning boat leaves the Monongahela wharf, above the Bridge, precisely at 8 o'clock.

Passengers by this boat take the stages at Brownsville same evening at 4 o'clock, and the splendid cars of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Cumberland next morning at 8 o'clock, reaching Baltimore the same evening—only 32 hours through from Pittsburgh to Baltimore, and 40 hours to Philadelphia.

The evening boat leaves at 6 o'clock. Passengers by the evening boat will lodge on the boat in comfortable staterooms the first night; will pass over the beautiful mountain scenery in daylight; sup and lodge in Cumberland. Thus avoiding night travel altogether.

The Proprietors of this route, in order to make the connection complete between Brownsville and Cumberland, have placed on the road 50 splendid Troy, Albany, Concord and Newark Coaches, of the most improved models, and fifty teams of the best young horses the country affords, in addition to their former stock; they feel satisfied they will be able to accomodate and give satisfaction to all who may patronize their route. By our tickets passengers have choice of either steamboat or railroad between Baltimore and Philadelphia, and have the privilege of stopping at Cumberland and Baltimore and resume their seats at pleasure. For tickets apply at the office, at the St. Charles Hotel, Wood street, or at the wharf boat.

Extension of Pittsburgh.

RARE CHANCE FOR GOOD INVESTMENTS! The subscriber has laid out, and now offers for sale at reasonable prices and on accommodating terms, one hundred and ten building lots, on that handsome level ground between Braddock street and the Monongahela river. They are about one-third of a mile from the city line, and are situated in that part of the city district which will probably soon be annexed to the city as the Seventh Ward. No property in the suburbs possesses superior advantages, nor has any heretofore been laid out with so liberal an allowance of wide streets; Braddock is from one hundred and twenty to about one hundred and ninety feet wide, and Beelen, Commerce, Brady, Columbus and Water streets, all wide avenues. Most of the lots have two fronts, and as they are of various sizes, and will be sold one lot, with the priudege of four or five, early applicants can be accommodated to suit their own views of improvement. Persons who desire to build or to make secure investments in property that is sure to advance in value, and particularly those who intend to erect manufactories, would do well to view these lots and examine the draft before purchasing elsewhere. The survey for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and the railroad survey by the State of Pennsylvania were both made alongside of this property, and it is generally considered that Braddock street, or the ground immediately alongside of it, affords the only eligible route for a railroad from Pittsburgh to the East. Coal can be delivered on this property at a much less cost than on the Allegheny river, and there is always deep water at this port or the river.

NO CURE, NO PAY—SELLERS' LIVER PILLS. These celebrated pills claim public confidence, not only on account of what the proprietor may say about them, but on account of the good resulting from their use. Read the following statement from a citizen of Birmingham:—

Birmingham, June 24th 1846.

Mr. R. E. Sellers: I take this opportunity of testifying in favor of your invaluable medicine. About two years ago I was taken down with severe inflammation of the liver, and was so reduced by night sweats, and other effects of this dreadful disease that my life was despaired of. After other means had failed, I was advised by my Physician to try your Liver Pills; and I must say that after taking one box and a half I joy at this time. I therefore take pleasure in recommending them to others afflicted with disease of the liver.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN GIVENER.

These Pills stand unequalled by any medicine known for the cure of Liver Complaint, and may be had of the proprietor, R. E. Sellers, 57 Wood street, and of H. P. Schwartz and J. Mitchell, Allegeny City. je29.

CONSUMPTION and Bleeding at the Lungs cured by the use of DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY.

MISS EMELINE YEAGER, aged seventeen years, was taken, when at the age of sixteen, with a slight cold; which she neglected until the LUNGS fell a prey to that seeking destroyer, CONSUMPTION, when application to a physician was made, but to no effect. He considered her case a hopeless one, and prescribed but little medicine for her. In the meantime she discharged great quantities of blood, with much expectoration of thick phlegm and cough.—Her bodily frame at length became reduced to a living skeleton. Her last was anxiously looked for by her friends, that her sufferings might end by the pangs of death. During the time, her physician frequently called, and as the last resort, determined to test the virtues of "Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy," having noticed some extraordinary cures performed by the medicine in similar cases. He at once obtained two bottles, and administered it to her. The fourth day he found some change, which gave hopes. He continued giving the medicine for eighteen days; at that time she was rendered able to be walking in her bed chamber, to the astonishment of her friends and relatives. She continued using the medicine for eight weeks, when she declared herself entirely free from disease and pain, and now pursues her daily occupations in perfect health.

☞A small pamphlet accompanies this medicine, which gives a full description of diseases, the manner of treatment, &c. &c.

Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy!

USE Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy for colds, coughs, consumption, bronchitis, &c., if you are suffering with any of the numerous complaints which it is intended to cure. You cannot, in the entire list of Syrups, Balsams Expectorants, &c., find a remedy that is more worthy of trial—that has proved itself more valuable, or even its equal. There is probably no medical preparation of the present age that has so rapidly advanced in public favor—that has so speedily won an enviable popularity, and that solely by the reputation of its wonderful merits. Since its introduction into the Western country, it has built up for itself a name which has thrown completely into the shade all the old standard preparations for the cure of this large and exceedingly distressing class of diseases. If you are affected with any of the complaints which have their origin in a cold, do not neglect it a single day, but make immediate use of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, and if it is in the power of medicine to give relief, you will be speedily and effectually cured.

DR. SWAYNE'S

COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

THE GREATEST CURE EVER RECORDED!—Dr. SWAYNE—Dear Sir: I feel it a debt of gratitude due you—and a duty to the afflicted generally, to offer my humble testimony in favor of your Compound Syrup of Prunus Virginia, or Wild Cherry, or rather of its medicinal virtues. Some three years since I was violently attacked with cold and inflamation of the Lungs, which was accompanied with a very distressing cough, pain in the breast and head; a very considerable discharge of offensive mucus from the lungs, frequent from them, especially from changes of weather, however slight. At first I felt no alarm about my condition, but was pretty soon convinced that I was rapidly going into consumption. I grew daily weaker, and at length was scarcely able to walk about, or speak above a whisper, such was the exceeding weakness of my lungs. During this time I had tried various preparations and prescriptions, but found no relief—growing all the time worse. Just here I was advised and persuaded by a dear friend in Wilmington, to make trial of your Syrup of Wild Cherry; I must confess that previously I had been prejudiced against patent medicines, and am still against those coming out of the hands of empirics, but understanding your claims to the profession and practice of medicine, and having implicit faith in the say so of my friend, I forthwith purchased of Dr. Shaw, one of your agents, a few bottles, and commenced its use. My disease at this time was of 20 or 24 months standing, consequently, was deeply seated. It therefore required time and a number of bottles to effect a cure in my case; I found, however, considerable relief from the first four or five bottles. But being a public speaker, I frequently attempted to preach with my increasing strength and health, and thereby ruptured those vessels that had already began to heal, in this way doubtless, my cure was greatly retarded. In consequence of acting thus imprudently, I had to use 12 or 15 bottles before I was perfectly restored. I have no question, a much smaller number of bottles would have made me sound, but for the above indiscretion. The Syrup allayed the feverish habit, done away the distressing cough, put a stop to the discharge of matter from the lungs, and gave them and the entire system, good health. Thanks be to God, who is the source of all health, and to Dr. Swayne for it. I would recommend the Syrup to all persons who may be affected with colds, cough or consumption. I verily believe it will cure consumption in the first and second stages, and in the last, will relieve and prolong life. It is an excellent medicine in cases of whooping cough, and is so very pleasant to the taste, that children will cry for it. I have deferred offering this certificate until now, for the purpose of being perfectly satisfied with the permanency of the cure, and now that I feel perfectly well, I offer it with pleasure.

EXTRAORDINARY DISCLOSURES.

BEWARE OF FRAUD.

TO DRUGGISTS.

SOME Druggists are misled into the error of buying a miserable imitation of Dr. Smith's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills, simply because they can purchase the spurious cheaper. We shall in all cases expose such dealers throughout the country, who, after being duly informed of the rascality of these imitators, buy and attempt to impose upon the public with such worthless trash. It is not the Sugar coating alone that constitutes the value of my Pills, but it is my invention, for which I claim the right. G. BENJ. SMITH, M. D.
