to know why this iron should be regarded a "raw material," and as such a proper subject of exemption from duty. If the argument was that it was right and proper in this way to cheapen the means of transportation for first and proper in this way to cheapen the means of transportation, he would ask where were they to stop? Why stop at this or that year?

Mr. Calhoun said that he had been informed on eliable authority that this bill would not injurished the would not detain the one of the bill that the railroads benefited the farmer by affording means of transportation for feature in favor of the bill that the railroads benefited the farmer by affording means of transportation for feature in favor of the bill that the railroads benefited the farmer by affording means of transportation for feature in favor of the bill while sales that he was instructed by the Legislature of his own state. All very true; but the Legislature of his own state. All very true; but the whigs as a party deny the right of instruction, stop? Why stop at this or that year?

Mr. Calhoun said that he had been informed on piece of partial legislation for the exclusive bene fit of railroad corporations.

Mr. Pannagna, if opposed to the bill, in voting the debts of their husbands. The property of the while is held liable for her own debts contracted be worth that also? That showed that this was a piece of partial legislation for the exclusive bene fit of railroad corporations.

Mr. Pannagna, if opposed to the bill, in voting the duty on iron employed in the construction of stramboats. Why, then, not exceed the whigh and base, if opposed to the bill, in voting the duty on trouting the duty on trouting the two matrices, and the whigs allege that he was instructed by feature in favor of remaining the legislation of the whigs allege that he was instructed by feature in favor of remaining the legislation of the whig
