The "Price-Current" paper goes on nnery. The merchants consider it just the thing needed. The merchants consider it just the thing needed. We present, to-day, the first letter from our The morchants consider it just the thing needed.

We present, to-day, the first letter from our regular correspondent at Washington. He is a good writer, and has advantages for gaining in-formation that few writers there possess.

Wr are not in favor of paying anything for As the contest progresses, it becomes more having the President's Message telegraphed through. The telegraphic synopsis promised tial campaign of next year. Should the people will do for us till it arrives by mail and comes fail to make a choice of President, and the elec out in our regular issue. Our neighbor of the Journal ground his axe on this body to select one from the three highest on the Post again, yesterday; and in his eager-on the Post again, yesterday; and in his eager-to andidates, constituted precisely as it now is The difficulty of effecting a result would be ness to make us out wrong he preaches strange heightened to the same extent that the Presidency and wicked doctrine. According to his opinion exceeds in importance and honor the position for the proper remedy for a bad law in all cases is which the struggle is now going on. forcible resistance, rebellion and revolution. In The Senate have elected a chaplain as the refact, and in brief, the Pittsburgh Journal is, in sult of two days work. I understand some of common with the abolitionist press generally, engaged in the task of inciting and urging on the people of Kansas to bloodshed and civil war. volving upon the chaplain be performed in turn Our readers will think this hardly possible : vet by the half dozen or more reverend gentlemen Our readers will think this hardly possible ; yet to be found among its members. It would reit is unquestionably the fact. They have some mind these gentlemen occasionally of their sacred bad laws in Kansas. But laws they are, enacted calling, and at the same time show a disposition by a recognized legislature, and must remain to economize in the expenditures of the govern-laws till duly repealed. To get rid of those laws the people have only to elect another lagislature the people have only to elect another legislature next " those desiring their repeal have a large ma-jority of votes in the territory. That, then, is jority of votes in the territory. That, then, is painful impression here, realizing the fears of many that abolition violence would lead to blood the abolitionists say, "no, don't do that; seize shed and civil war. All, even the most ultra

That is the remedy urged by abolitionists instead If those zealous free State men had wished to place their cause under the ban of public opinion of a quiet and peaceful repeal.

they could have projected no better plan than to And why do the abolitionists say this " The thus demonstrate their defiance of all authority, motive is perfectly apparent. Capital must be except that higher law which each man sets up made out of it on which to run a candidate for himself. House burning and violence will the Presidency. A few hundred deaths by violence in Kansas must pave the way for an election of an abolitionist as President. Should such a war affairs are likely to occupy a good deal of the begin it will not stop within the borders of Kan-election for delegate. I find the impression presas. Missourians will rush in to help the pro-slavails that both the claimants will be sent back, very men of Kansas, and Iowans and Nebraskans and a new election ordered. Senator Brodhead has already given notice of will go to the aid of the free State men. Where will it stop if once begun? Will it be confined to regions beyond the Mississippi? Yet the peo-tion of a Railroad from the valley of the Missis-Richardson ple of Georgia are raising money to send to their siDDi to the Pacific score. The set of the Missis-
