Useless Fire Plugs .- Yesterday, during the fire on Prospect street, an attempt was made to attach a section of hose to the fire plug on the corner of Wash falling, but there is still a fine cual-bont stage. We subjoin ington and Webster streets, but the plug was found sible. We understand that it has been in this condition for some time, and would be entirely useless in case of a conflagration. Some one (whose ever in case of a confingration. Some one (whose ever duty it is) should see that it is repaired. The plug at the corner of Washington and Wylie is also of no service, as the head of water is entirely too weak.

As these two plugs are the only ones the inhabitants WHISKY—Sale 20 bbls rectified at 35c:

A Cuse of Eight Months' Standing Curved by Boerhard's Moltand Billers.—Michael Kelly, No. 117 Grant, near Smith deld sitest, says: "Lest July, while running on the river, on a cotton boat plying between Natchez and New Orleans, I was taken with fever and ague. For eight long months I suffered with this dreadful disease. The greater part of this time I was unable to work and spent at least tifty dollars for different medicines, but I found no permanent relief. Three weeks ago, one of my friends insisted upon my trying Boerhave's Holland Bitters, saying that a cure was graranted. After taking it for one week, I must state I was a sound man. I have been at work now for two weeks, and have had no return of the chills and fever whatever."
