Tavern keepers are divided into two classesone to sell all kinds of liquors-the other to sell cider, beer, alc, porter and malt liquors. The had been run up and then let down through this price for licenses is high, and the party licensed management -how the same thing was attemptcider, beer, alc, porter and malt liquors. The must give bond in one thousand dollars, with sureties, conditioned for the strict observance of all the provisions of the Jaw. The Sunday law, and the laws against selling to minors, or to habitually intemperate persons are not repealed or modified. One peculiarity of the bill is that those licensed are only authorized to sell to travelers and guests, and not to casual callers who call for the mere purpose of drinking In Allegheny county the Judges of the Ditrict Court, the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions and the County Commissioners are for this county. The last section of the act repeals the law of last year, and forbids the grant no of any beenses except under the provision of the act or bill reported Some portions of this bill will meet with general approbation, while others are liable to objections. It is at any rate on improvement on the old license law, and we presume will be more satisfactory and useful than the law of by) session.
