

PITTSBURGH POST.

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 3, 1896.

PRICE-CURRENT. Extra copies of the Post-Courier, put up in strong wrappers, ready for mailing, can always be had at the Merchants' Exchange, at the rate of five cents per copy, or fifty cents per dozen.

We publish today a portion of the correspondence between our government and that of England in relation to the recent settlement cases. As we have already stated the main facts of the case do not publish all the letters.

PITTSBURGH AND STEUBENVILLE RAILROAD.

The fully organized to lease this railroad as a power plant, and to use it for the purpose of generating electricity. The offer of a similar nature can be obtained. We were from the first decidedly in favor of the lease, and urged an immediate decision of the board. It is now our duty to see that the lease is not given up, and that the work is not suspended. It is our duty to see that the lease is not given up, and that the work is not suspended. It is our duty to see that the lease is not given up, and that the work is not suspended.

THE NEW YORK STATE LEGISLATURE.

The American members of the New York Legislature, held a meeting at the Capital at New York, Tuesday evening. Nearly every member belonging to the Order was present, together with a majority of the State and Federal members. Messrs. O'Brien, Murphy, and others, were present. It was decided that Mr. O'Brien would be the choice, but that they would give their hearty support to Mr. Murphy, who was the choice of the majority. The meeting was a very successful one, and the members were well satisfied with the result.
