The election in the Granite State for Governor, &c., takes place on the 11th just, and the victory. A couple of weeks ago the opposition newspapers ridiculed the notion that Mr. Wells approaches they are commencing to let them selves down gracefully by hinting at discontent among the Know Nothings and other causes that

New Hampshire will be all right on Tuesday next. The citizens have had one year of Know Nothing rule, which has been a sufficient length of time to disgust every State that has yet tried it, and we cannot think the eld Granite State will prove an exception. New Hampshire will lead off the Democratic column of 1856. We make the prediction without pretending to be either " a prophet or the son of a prophet."

THE RESOLUTIONS of the late Democratic State Convention, which we published yesterday in our daily and weekly editions, embrace and discuspresented to the Democratic party. The author of the resolutions, the Hon. John L. Dawson,
