SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.

IN QUART BOTTLES.

For the Remural and Permanent Cure of all Diseases arising from an Impure State of the Blood, or Habit of the System.

His Carcillation, respiration, and secretion, constitute the phenomena of Life. These organs are influed with wonderful sympathetic affinities; if any one of them is impreperly affected, they all become irritated and intamed, the stomach gets deranged, pains of all kinds come on, especially in the head and limbs, accompanied with a burning heat, loss of appetite, extreme nervous debility, nausea, morbid anxiety, depression of spirits, disturbed sleep, and indisposition to make the slightest physical exertion. If the vital thid be charged with the elements of disease, sickness must be the consequence. It is then evident that a medicine is severed that will cleanse and purily the blood, and such is SANDS' SARSAPARILLA. It assists digestion, creates appeties, strengthens the system, and by removing the cause of the disease effects a complete and permanent cure.

The following unsolicited communication is one among thousands that are from time to time addressed to us from all quarters of the world, to which we invite attention:

LINY Co., ORROON TEX., March 14, 1855.

MESSES. A. B. d. D. Sands, New Fork—Gentlemen: In the spring of 1853 I left Indians with my wife and seven children for Oregon, and arrived safely at Salmon Palla, Snake River, without any difficulty; at this place our eldest boy was seized with a swelling and severe pains in the logs, which day by day grew worse, until his legs contracted and becames opainful that he could not walk; we had to curry him in and about the way of the disease, and cause 1 a perfect skeleton. Here we were embled to consult a physician. Dr. Hill, who honeatly confessed he could not cure him, although he could give him medicine that would relieve the pain. In this expensely, by the time he was re Appropriate English and a constraint of the man land of the Montan and All the second States of the Montan and Appropriate States of the Appropriate SANDS' SARSAPARILLA. rom Eric, by McKean, Well's Corner. dor.
