The Currency War. The foud between our Hoosier neighbors and mittee on the License bill, reported the final ac tion of the Committee. Mr. Wright, in present Cincinnati merchants and brokers, who refuse ing the report, delivered a speech replete with und democratic doctrine. He took occasion o denounce the report as uncalled for, and against the will and wishes of the people 10th day of April next, to adopt such measure: To whom does this hill belong ? Not to the remocracy; for we had sent to the other end o will effectually rid their State of the impositionsh State House but a single section, and place of that we have a bill with nearly as many humbug, and that the Fugitive Slave law does bot need modifying. They admit, too, at the same time, that Kansas will be a free State, so ctions as there are days in the year. But, si this is all that we can get. A bare bombastnfinished and ill-shaped. To Mr. Wright 11 member from Monroe, I have to make my hearty dollar of Indiana money which they can procure thanks for the aid given me in Committee in th support of those who sent us here. I would much prefer to have seen it fail, than the humil dollars sufficient currency to meet the demands trade, is highly prejudicial to every department onstrained to vote for this obnoxious and emasculated bill as the one which I present therafore "compelled to refuse accommodations The gentlemen from Monroo went his whole length the farmer will "suffer some" in not being able to ethnalize the cash witwhich he expected to meet his with me, and if others had done so there would to have been a different presentment. The remarks of the gentleman from Luzerne who has no superior here, or indeed in the othe maturing bills, and that, in consequence, there will be great commercial and financial embarassment to a 1 branches of trade, moreantile, agricultural and me branch, was most happily expressive, and par--hanical. All these dire evils are expected to follo the "base" conduct of the "merchants and brokers" who have so pertinaciously demanded their dues, and Indiana merebants.
