First sa.

It has now become quite familiar to the subscriber to hear from persons who call to look at their Piano Fortes "THEY (IAVE BEEN TOLD) that they wear out in a little white!"

"That since the death of Jonas Chickering their Piano were not worth anything!"

"That the late Jonas Chickering had acknowledged to his fact that they were not worth anything!"

"That the late Jonas Chickering had acknowledged to his death bed, to a New York manufacturer, that he did not put as much work on the INSIDE of his Pianos as they did, by lorty or nity dollars!"

The subscriber is white sitting in his chair, at the late Jonas Chickering's death of clurred at a moment's warning, white sitting in his chair, at the house of a friend in Boston.
