LOCAL AFFAIRS.

WEDNESDAY MORNING:::::::::::APRIL 16.

Theatre—Mr. C. W. Couldock.—Mr. Couldock, after an absence of more than a year, reappeared on Monday evening in the part of Richelieu, in Bulwer's celebrated drama of that name. It was truly refreshing to see so excellent an actor play so grand a part as that of the crafty old Cardinal. Mr. Couldock is, without exception, the best representative of the legitimate drama who visits this city, and it was an evidence of the good taste of our citizens to see the theatre well filled on Monday evening, as well as last evening, when he performed Hamlet. He is accompanied by a Miss Irving, a lady of fine personal appearance, and who has a good perception of the part she enacts; but from her first appearance, this we believe, being her first regular engagement, it is hardly fair to predict what may be her future success. To-night King Lear. Couldock as Lear, and Miss Irving as Cordelia.

City Hall.—For the sale also this evening of an extensive consignment of carpets from one of the largest importing houses, to take place on Thursday morning, April 17th, commencing at 10 o'clock, the above commodious Hall has been secured, where the carpets will be arranged for convenient inspection this day, and suitable arrangements made for the convenience of buyers during the sale. The attention of the trade and families is invited to this large and valuable stock, which must be immediately closed without reserve, affording a better opportunity for purchasing the most desirable styles and qualities of carpets which has ever before occurred in this city.

The Conspiracy Case.—The case of James Kelly vs. James M. Walker, Mrs. Walker, Theodore C. Walker and Louisa Shaip, occupied the attention of the Quarter Sessions all of yesterday. There were eight hours of speeches, which lasted until the hour of adjournment, and therefore the charge of the Court will not be delivered until this morning. Messrs. M'Clelland and Marshall spoke during the forenoon session, Col. M'Candless ——— an eloquent argument of an hour in length after dinner, and Col. Black occupied the rest of the afternoon in closing for the prosecution. The court room was densely crowded during the entire day.

Robert A. M'Cabe, son of R. B. M'Cabe, Esq., of Blairsville, Pa., was killed by the explosion of the steamer Belle, nine miles below Sacramento city, California, on the 5th of February last. He was an express messenger, having taken the situation vacated by James M'Bride, who was killed by the explosion of the steamer Pearl, on the 27th of January, 1855.

The Last Chance.—We were pleased to see Franklin Hall well filled on the occasion of Mad. Anderson's Benefit. To-night the Artist who has put variety on canvass brings his claim. We hope it will meet with the response that his talent and energies deserve. An exhibition will be given at ——— when children's ———

We are informed that the City Collector has departed with a couple of thousand dollars of the people's money. When further developments are made concerning the report, we will give the particulars. The defaulted amount is said to be secured by the bail.

New Post Office.—The Postmaster General has established a new Post Office at Kerr's Station, Washington county, Pa., and appointed Wm. Kerr Postmaster. It will be especially supplied from Donningsville—four miles—twice a week.

Railroad Smash up.—Two freight cars came into collision on the Pennsylvania Railroad near Florence, yesterday, which resulted in crushing two or three cars and injuring the locomotive to a considerable extent. No one injured.
