LOCAL AFFAIRS.

TUESDAY MORNING ..... APRIL 22

The Weather in Bloston.—Well, we like things cool; winter likes to "linger in the lap of spring." Few days of summer and a few of winter will do—much of a good thing is good for nothing, but both pitch in a jumble, a mess or a smash, is not to be.

The weather is the funniest fellow in all nature. He laughs and cries, shivers and sweats, blows and snows just as he pleases. He is changeable as a weather-cock, unstable as water, settled as drought, wild as wind, heavy as thunder, bright as sunshine, and as storms. He is in everybody's mouth, of all ages and sexes; sometimes for compliment, sometimes for curses. He is on every body's back, in every body's face, and often in every body's boots. This year is the weather's benefit, and he holds a good many houses, for people can't go out. In 1838 he will be a donation of snow on the 5th of April; this is what he takes it on the 21st. Every thing is advancing, and so is he.

Theatre.—Notwithstanding the tempestuous weather, Mr. Couldock was greeted with a good house on the first night of his re-engagement. His personation of the character of Louis XI. was, without exception, extraordinary. The perfect attention of the audience during the passage of the scenes, was a artist's best compliment. And the frequent ejaculations of satisfaction told the enthusiasm of admiration as it broke spontaneously from all around. Mr. Couldock was supported with unusual skill; the aptness and perfection by Miss Irving, as Marie; Miss Cooke as the Dauphin, and Messrs. M'Bride and Nicholls in their respective characters. We hope Mr. Couldock will favor the public with a repetition of this masterpiece of his art, and that Providence may supply a better night. To-night we shall have "The Invocate" and "Still Waters Run Deep," in both of which Mr. Couldock will appear.

The last snow brought the first tomatoes of the season, which were served up yesterday evening for supper at the St. Clair Hotel. This house is now doing a handsome business under the supervision of one of the most attentive and accomplished landlords to be found anywhere. Mr. Connelly seems determined to supply his guests not only with the delicacies, fruits and meats of air, earth and inland waters, but also with tributes to the palate from ocean's sunny isles.

There is one thing about Connelly's table which is worthy of all imitation—he keeps no shallow dishes, nor flat ones either, and the anxious inquirer after bread never gets a stone; in other words, the viands are never "just out."

J. Edgar Thompson, Esq., President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, is in town. He is stopping at the Monongahela House.

We are glad to hear that the Mayor has promised to urge upon the Councils the necessity of appointing a couple of policemen to attend to the levee.

Quarter Sessions.—Judge McClure and Associates Adams and Boggs.

Commonwealth vs. Francis Grant. Indictment, assault and battery with intent to kill. Nicholas Meyers, who keeps the White Swan, on Market street, testified that the defendant and a young man named Wm. Johnston came into his house on the 29th of March last, and wanted a drink, which he was refused. They then started to go out, Johnson attempting to pull the curtain from his oyster box. The prosecutor tried to get it from him, and in the tustle Francis Grant stabbed him in the back, the wound nothing thus to his bed for five days. Grant was arrested, but Johnson escaped, and has not yet been taken into custody. Several other witnesses were called to corroborate the prosecutor, but no one swore positively to seeing the defendant strike the prosecutor with the knife.

Mr. Swartzwelder for his defence said he should show that the person who committed the deed was Johnson, who had escaped; that the knife had been borrowed by Johnson that evening. A witness named Graham testified that he lent the knife in question, which he said in the shop where he worked, to Johnson, who said he wanted to go down to the shop to do something.

The Jury retired before dinner. At half past two they returned a verdict of guilty.

Commonwealth vs. Hugh McBeon. Indictment, passing counterfeit money. The defendant was charged with passing a ten dollar bill upon Leonard Graham testified that he took the bill upon Leonard Johnson, who said he wanted to go down to the shop to do something.

The Jury retired before dinner. At half past two they returned a verdict of guilty.

Commonwealth vs. Hugh McBeon. Indictment, passing counterfeit money. The defendant was charged with passing a ten dollar bill upon Leonard Graham, purporting to be of the "Merchants' Bank of New Haven." The Jury found a verdict of not guilty. Discharged.

Commonwealth vs. John Rinehart; indictment assault and battery on John Abha. It was a trivial matter, and the jury found the defendant not guilty, and the prosecutor, John Abha, to pay the costs.

John, not having the ready, was committed.

Nicholas Stille plead guilty to the charge of the larceny of a pair of boots valued at $4,50. He had been in jail since the 25th of March. The sentence of the Court was that he pay the costs of prosecution, restore the property stolen, if not already restored, and undergo an imprisonment in jail for two calendar months.

Thomas Jackson plead guilty to the charge of the larceny of a pair of pantaloons and an umbrella. He had been in jail two months before trial. He was sentenced to pay costs of prosecution, restore the property, and to two months imprisonment in the county jail.

SENTENCED.

James M'Anally, convicted of keeping a bawdy house some days ago, was sentenced to pay a fine of 6¼ cents, the costs of prosecution and to be incarcerated in jail for two calendar months.

Wm. M'Kenna, found guilty of an assault and battery, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment in the jail. He had been incarcerated some time previous to his trial.

Francis Grah, who was found guilty of assault and battery with intent to kill, and recommended to the mercy of the court, was sentenced to pay a fine of 6¼ cents, the costs of prosecution, and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for nine calendar months.

Henry Blakely plead guilty to an assault and battery of a trifling nature upon Catharine Shriner, and was sentenced to pay the costs.

DISCHARGED.

Clement Hetzell indicted for the larceny of a looking glass, valued at $1,00, and a key valued at 50 cents, was acquitted, no prosecutor appearing. He was discharged.

A HUMAN LIFE SAVED!—

DOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11, 1856.

J. A. RHODES, Esq:—Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have removed

W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it, until my lungs and liver were Consented to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. Hearing your agent was in town, I sent for him, and I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach, and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time.

S. M. CONKLIN says:—"I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result, from 26th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle."

S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as Mr. W. S.'s. The medicine is both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify.

Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Caution the Public in three words—

"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, then with brazen impudence put their pamphlet with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dare.'" &c.

Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referred, to the name "Dr Christie's Ague Balsam," that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, and copying, for example the certificates of cures, and the certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of New York, in favor of its perfectly HARMLESS OPERATION, which I have attached to my bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.

JAS. A. RHODES, Proprietor.

ADDITIONAL BY THE AFRICA.

THE PACIFIC PROBABLY SAFE.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The news by the Africa is not of great importance.

The U. S. Mediterranean squadron was about to cruise off the Spanish coast.

The Conference had one or two informal meetings to settle up details.

The Africa brings about one hundred passengers.

The following from Lloyd's List, may or may not, have reference to the Pacific:

FIGUEHEAD, March 24th,—The Shipworth arrived here. In coming off New Foundland coast she fell in with ice, 200 miles distant from land, and saw lights of a steamer in the ice. The above vessel left St. Johns, N. B., February 13th.

News from the Crimea reports that sixteen men were burned to death in some wooden huts on the slope above Kaidaker, and occupied by the commissary department. Nothing else of importance had transpired.

ENGLAND.

Business in Parliament was mostly of home interest. Among the notices of motions is one by Lord Goodrich, to ask whether a document which has recently appeared purporting to be a dispatch written by the British Minister at Washington, to the Secretary of State of the U. S., dated Feb. 27th, with reference to the dispatches between Great Britain and the United States, on the subject of Central America, is authentic.

The armistice had been extended both on sea and land, as the natural consequence, the blockade of Russian ports ceases.

The Military Board of Enquiry into charges against certain Crimean Officers had held its first meeting.

An English church is to be built at Constantinople as a memorial of the British who perished in the war.

FRANCE.

Paris had been illuminated in honor of peace, and it was more general than the first demonstration. The Orleanists and Legitimists participated in it.

SPAIN.

Nothing of importance at Badajos. Some alarm was created by squabbles among the troops and the national guard, but not of a political character, and of no real importance.

SWEDEN.

The Government organ at Stockholm, states that the project of fortifying the city cannot be regarded as a political demonstration against Russia.

Steamer Burned at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 19.—The steamer S. F. Trabue was burned at the wharf opposite this city. She is a total loss. Amount of loss unknown.

Another Heavy Defalcation at New Orleans.

GREATEST IMPROVEMENT YET!

NEW SCALE—H. KLEBER & BRO., have just received a small lot of NUNNS & CLARKS' PIANOS, provided with their NEW SCALE. This is their latest, and undoubtedly the most important improvement as yet made to the Piano Forte. The POWER of the instrument is almost DOUBLED thereby; and in point of volume, evenness and brilliancy of tone, they surpass anything as yet produced in the shape of a Piano. They possess all the advantages of the Grand Piano, without any of its disadvantages. We now challenge comparison with the instruments of any other maker in this country. Any competent and unbiased judge of the article will at once admit their superiority. The public is respectfully invited to call and examine these superior instruments.

GREATEST IMPROVEMENT YET!

NEW SCALE—H. KLEBER & BRO., have just received a small lot of NUNNS & CLARKS' PIANOS, provided with their NEW SCALE. This is their latest, and undoubtedly the most important improvement as yet made to the Piano Forte. The POWER of the instrument is almost DOUBLED thereby; and in point of volume, evenness and brilliancy of tone, they surpass anything as yet produced in the shape of a Piano. They possess all the advantages of the Grand Piano, without any of its disadvantages. We now challenge comparison with the instruments of any other maker in this country. Any competent and unbiased judge of the article will at once admit their superiority. The public is respectfully invited to call and examine these superior instruments.
