

The Pittsburgh Post.

FRIDAY MORNING APRIL 25.
FOR PRESIDENT
JAMES BUCHANAN.
DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.
CANAL NOMINATIONS:
GEORGE SCOTT, of Cuyahoga Co.
ANDREW JESSE, of Franklin Co.
JACOB DAY, of Montgomery Co.
CIVILIAN GENERAL:
TIMOTHY LEVENS, Porter County.

ON ALL PAGES WILL BE FOUND INTERESTING READING.

THE COMMUNICATION IN RELATION TO THE VARIOUS IMPROVEMENTS IS CROWDED OUT FOR TO-DAY. IT WILL PROBABLY APPEAR TOMORROW.

OUR WEEKLY MAY BE READ THIS AFTERNOON, CONTAINING THE LATEST FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS. SINGLE COPIES PER $2.00; IN CLUBS OF NOT LESS THAN TEN, $1.00; SINGLE COPIES, FIVE CENTS.

PRICE CURRENT.—The Pittsburgh Price-Cutter, issued from this office, may be purchased at the counting room, containing the latest reliable market and commercial news. Price 5 cents.

RAILROADS WESTWARD.

Pittsburgh is rapidly assuming an importance as the centre of an immense system of railroads stretching westward, for which little credit is given abroad; and although continual self-praise may be a tender point, we are constrained to exult at the rapid and substantial progress of our great gateway to the west. We have possessed of our great cities and states, the securing of which is a result of Pittsburg to Chicago, the longest continuous railroad under one management and go in the United States. From Chicago, the G. Atch. & St. Louis railroad carries the freight to the west, north, south, and east, while the Pennsylvania, which has been completed to the Lake Erie, is a vast carrier filling up with a substantial and vigorous population, with a network of railroads reaching every part of the country, so many hitherto isolated in time and space.

Mr. BUCHANAN.—The gentleman declined the public dinner to him given in New York, and he leaves to-day for Philadelphia, where a most cordial reception awaits him.

Editorial Bureau, Paris.—The London newspaper recently sailed at the French post office in consequence of its appearing with a black border as a token of mourning for the peace, which it cost the Times and Morning Advertiser to print.

Editorial Bureau, Paris.—The Times and Morning Advertiser were also seized.

That is the way to make England submit to a treaty she does not like. Force is upon her under a threat of leaving her alone to fight out the war with Russia if she does not agree to the French emperor's terms; and that drives all men to the House in a roar of laughter. What remarks, from almost all the speaking as well as thinking members, My old and much-trusted friend, Mr. Bloddy, from Washington, even had to take the floor and reply to the witty remarks of Messrs. Wright and Mingo navy. This is the House by storm. The members are all in the vein for wit, humor and fun. The House is in a roar.

The Senate this moment has just passed a bill, introduced by Mr. Brown, Chillicothe, after several hours' debate, by the vote of Judge Wilkins received nine votes, and had not give the casting vote for Brown, it would not have passed, he, the Judge, could have been elected. Mr. Brown was resented to the Chair by two Senators, and then addressed the Senate in a thunderous speech. The vote of the Senate was administered by Mr. Phenix, and a motion was then presented complimentary to the voting Speaker, Mr. Platt. The gentleman made a short speech.

The following resolution was offered in the House by Mr. McDonald:

"Resolved, That the thanks of this House be expressed to the Hon. Wm. H. Seward, for his able, impartial, upright and courageous manner in which he presided over the Senate, and to thank him for his conduct, wisdom and a safe return."

On the end of the year, 1840, during the great trying period of discussion to the admission of California, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1841, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1842, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1843, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1844, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1845, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1846, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1847, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1848, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1849, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1850, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1851, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1852, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1853, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1854, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1855, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1856, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1857, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1858, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1859, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1860, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1861, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1862, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1863, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1864, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1865, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1866, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1867, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1868, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1869, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1870, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1871, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1872, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1873, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1874, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1875, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1876, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1877, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1878, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1879, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1880, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1881, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1882, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1883, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1884, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1885, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1886, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1887, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1888, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1889, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1890, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1891, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1892, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1893, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1894, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1895, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1896, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1897, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1898, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1899, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1900, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1901, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1902, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1903, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1904, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1905, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1906, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1907, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1908, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1909, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1910, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1911, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1912, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1913, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1914, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.

On the 1st of January, 1915, he, the speaker, voted for the bill, and spoke, by the side of Mr. Wright, in favor of it, and voted to carry it over to the next session.