1834. Prof. De Grath feels it to be his duty to himself and the public to state explicitly, that the article offered for sale by Mrs. Anna E. Smith, called in her advertisement Doctor Smith, A. K. Smith, Chemist, &c., &c., is not "De Grath's Electric Oil." Mrs. Smith's pretensions to a knowledge of the prepara tions of this celebrated remedy, arises from her coan with Mr. Galutia B. Smith, formerly engaged with Prof. De Grath in keeping the books and correspondence of De Grath & Co., but never instructed in the manufacture of the medicine. These parties have neither the right nor the ability to MARINE INSURANCES on Vessels, Cargo, Preight, make "De Grath's Electric Oil," and no imitation of it can produce the wonderful effects of the original, as prepared by akes and Land Carriages, to all parts of the Union.
