inhuman cutrage, and inflict on them exemplary put Costs Rica had departed from the laws war, and he culls attention to the transactions at Virgin Bay for such proceedings on its part as the nature the case demand MONDAY MORNINGA

On May 6th, Don Molino tells Secretary Marcy that he has informed his government of those trans-actions, and doubtless Costa Rica will reply in a satsfactory manner. She will not authorize acts to tar uish her good name, and professes to have as much horror as the United States for shedding the blood of innocent people. If it should be proved that such persons suffered, she will without the least doubt bring the guilty parties to trial in order to be punished as they deserve. Don Molina says that this war is not between Costa Rica and Nicaragua, but han ited people of the two States, or rather of Centra merica against bands of unauthorized adventure America against bands of unautoorized adventurers who are imporcerishing and pressing the inhabitants of Nicaragua, and who are threatening to impose the same yoke upon the rost of Central America. Costa Rica cannot accord the rights of war to a hand of nen answerable to the penal laws, which certainly are not more severe in those States than in other States of the civilized world. He expresses the hope that r government will suspend its opinion till an inveson be made into the events on Virgin Bay, and 10 o'clock A. M. Important business should sethat it will not be too severe with regard to Costa Rica. She is defending her most sacred rights again it those who have destroyed and attracted her merely cure a general attendance ecause she is weak.

Don Augustin Vijil writes to Secretary Marcy, un der date of May 14th, saving : ... The unhappy state of the country in which he was born, and a desire of exerting his best efforts t relieve it, has led him to leave his next entry to represent its interests in the Capital of this blessed Republic," and proceeds to place the affairs of Nicaragua in such a light as to induce Mr. Marcy to view | tween our Atlantic and Pacific ports.
