TUESDAY MORNING.....

FOR PRESIDENT: JAMES BUCHANAN

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. GEORGE SCOTT, OF COLUMBIA CO. JACOB FRY, Jr., MONTGOMERT Co. TIMOTHY IVES, POTTER COUNTY.

THE POST AND THE ASSAULT. As we expected, the assault on Mr. Sumner has furnished the desperate agitators with a much needed theme for declamation. The Kansas subject had become stale and unprofitable; and until some new events occurred in that territory, the people were tired of the subject. The outrage at Washington has come just in time to afford a little variety. The Guzette and Journal of yesterday poured forth ponderous columns on the subject, the main purpose of which was to prove a lie. That lie is that the Post was disposed either to justify or excuse the assault on Mr. Sumner. Our readers know that that is an unmitigated falsehood. To prove the utter falsity of the allegations, we need only to republish a few extracts from our articles on the subject in the Saturday and Monday numbers of our paper Here they are:

"Mr Brooks has acted the ruffian, has com mitted a crime in law, and, we think, a breach of privilege. He may be punished by the Senate; he may be punished by the Court.

We neither justify nor excuse the assault. should be severely punished, and we hope it wi shower down bitter and reviling words, but will not defend themselves, are a disgrace to the Northern States, as much as the bullies and ruf fians are to the Southern. Had Senator Sumner made an effort at defence by any means within his reach, he would have had the general sym-

We have already declared our detestation of such outrages as that committed on Senator of Congress will act promptly upon the subject, and deal with the ofender as he deserves. Senator, no Representative is safe if such out rages may pass unpunished. Freedom of speech may often be abused, but there are other means of redress than the cane, the bowie knife or revolver; and the Senate Chamber is the last place where such disgraceful scenes should occur. The whole nation is degraded by it. The latest accounts received make it out a worse affair than it was at first represented."

Such is our language, pretty clearly expressed we should suppose We then expressed in equally clear terms or dislike of that non-resistant policy which not only

Yet with such physical endowments and capacities, he is a non-resistant, and any ruffian feels safe in assailing him. Why has not Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio, been assaulted before this time? He is a much smaller man than Sumner, and uses strong with the smaller man than Sumner, and uses strong of a general character, particularly in response to what has fallen from Senators who have smaller from Senators who have the manufest that Mr. Buchanan has the manufest that Mr

Even his best friends ily an investigating committee has been appointed and we shall soon know the truth. This much we feel assured of now, that had Sumner been known weapons if necessary, he would not have been thus assailed. The north has been disgraced enough by this non-resistant doctrine, and if it is still to be pursned by the abolitionists in Congress, the people of the north are not bound to bestow much sym pathy when they are assailed, however much they may detest the assailant. This is exactly what we said at first of this assault on Mr. Sumner; we say it yet; and the ribaldry and
