[A dispatch from the Secretary of the Club states that they will leave at 11 o'clock on Thursday night, and consequently will arrive in Pittsburgh on Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.] The Unlicensed Dray Nuisance continues to attract the attention of the "one-horse men" about town. Yesterday His Honor, Mayor Bingham, had before him a man named John M'Carroll, who was arrested for running the streets without a license, in opposition to an ordinance. M'Carroll, it appears, has a license from the Allegheny city authorities, for which to the Emperor. he pays $2 per annum, but objects to paying $2.50 for one in Pittsburgh, although his business calls him as much to this as to the other side of the river. His Honor decided that he must fork over the quarter engle, when his counsel took out a writ of certiorari to have the case finally adjudicated before the Supreme Court. A milk-man, of the name of Michael Tobias, dr ving a fine span, (milk-men'always have good horses) also objected to paying into the city Treasury h ments having been made via the Ohio & Pennsylva nia, and Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad to sell Excursion Tickets to Cincinnati, and return one round trip for $10,25 - this being half each Road's local fare. The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton being the first to make this arrangement. when other routes refused, persons visiting the Convention will find this the pleasantest route to Cincinnati, and can rely on making close connection Taking the 3 A.
