NON-RESISTANCE. Mrs. Swisshelm has "joined the army" of advocates of non-resistance, and still we refuse to strike our flag and surrender. Non-resistance "is a shame to manhood, and a crime against | Kentucky nature." That is just what we said at first, and we will stick to it "like wax." Non-resistance ignores the native instincts of resentment and self-preservation, and wholly unmans the selfappointed "lords of creation." It would give the whole earth over to those ruthless bullies having struck you on one cheek, will Mississippi.

Even Mrs. S., agrees with us. She thinks "Brooks ought certainly to be well thrashed;" but not by Sumner! Mr. Sumner

No amount of respect for Mrs. S., cau enable us to appreciate this sublime distinction. If Mr. Sumner is too good a Christian to defend himself, he ought to be too good a Christian to bandy reviling and insulting words. Is not that true, madam? Mr. Sumner's religion is not of a strict character, as is well known. He belongs to that fashionable class of "free thinkers" for which Boston is becoming famous. Not a free-thinker in the infidel sense exactly only of the Bible but of the constitution.
