PITTSBURGH, June 10, 1856. CAPEET. In obedience to the foregoing request, I re spectfully solicit the Democracy of the two cities and Allegheny county to assemble at Wilkins Hall on Friday evening, the 13th inst., for the purpose named in the above note. SAMUEL W. BLACK,

Chairman County Com. of Cor. COQUETTING THE IHISH AND GER-

It is amusing to witness the coquetting going on on the part of the "republicans" just now. They are wheedling and ogling the Know Nothings, and offering to marry them without any ise of love and obedience. At the same time these "republican" dandies are making love to head of the Department of State, and abroad as the Irish in a most sweet and affectionate mana diplomatist in the charge of our most imporner. They want to marry them too. The law tant foreign relations, he has been distinguished against bigamy does not deter them a bit.
